

Updated SSH Group Trading Update – Revenue 140% up on 2021 Calendar Year

21 January 2022, The SSH Group Ltd (“SSH” or “the Group”) advises that, further to its trading update announcement of 18 January 2022 the following additional information is provided:

Operational Update

- ▶ SSH has secured a new three (3) year contract award with the City of Stirling, a local government authority in the state of Western Australia, for the provision of security services.
- ▶ The contract with the City of Stirling relates to the provision of security services to complement the existing internal security service for the City. The contract is for an initial term of two (2) years with an extension option of one (1) year. Revenue under the contract is governed by a schedule of rates on an as required basis with no minimum contract value. Due to the nature of the contract, the Company is not able at this stage to assess the material impact of the agreement on its securities and will advise the market in due course in this regard.
- ▶ Additional Contracts worth $1m awarded with Multiplex Construction in Western Australia for the provision of security and equipment services. The contract with Multiplex is for the provision of security and equipment services for the construction phase of their project which is expected to be completed within six (6) months.

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board.
