Market commentary

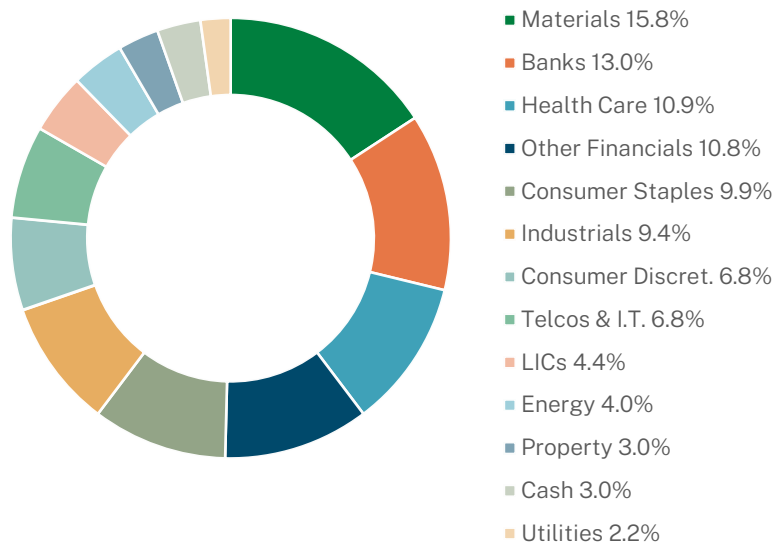

The Australian share market rose for the tenth consecutive month with the S&P/ASX 200 Accumulation Index increasing +1.1%. Despite the continued spread of the Delta strain and ongoing restrictions across various states, investor sentiment generally remained robust. Argo's share price recently achieved a new record high. Performance across the market varied. Materials stocks were the stand-out gaining +7.1%. In contrast, technology companies lagged (-6.9%) after posting sharp gains in June.

Sydney Airport and Spark Infrastructure Group were the best performing stocks in Argo's portfolio with both companies the subject of takeover bids, reflecting the market's growing M&A activity.
