Commencement of Litigation – PR Finance Group

Keybridge Capital Limited (Keybridge) advises that on 28 June 2019, it commenced proceedings in the Supreme Court of Victoria against PR Finance Group Limited (in Liquidation) (PRFG) and caused a simultaneous action to be taken against the former PRFG directors by the company's liquidator, for total damages exceeding $5 million.

Background

On 16 August 2013, Keybridge acquired, by way of scheme of arrangement, 100% of the equity in PRFG.<sup>1</sup> Keybridge relied upon warranties of the former directors that, amongst other things, the company was compliant with all relevant laws.

On 21 October 2013<sup>2</sup>, Keybridge appointed administrators to PRFG and its subsidiaries as a result of PRFG's new directors (under Keybridge Control) receiving a notice from the ASIC<sup>3</sup> that PRFG had not been complying with the National Consumer Credit Laws (NCCL).

Keybridge alleges in its claim, amongst other things, that at the time of the scheme, the directors were aware that PRFG was non-compliant with the NCCL and accordingly breached its representations and warranties to Keybridge, with damages being suffered by Keybridge as a result.
