

12 September 2022

Response to Media Speculation

APM Human Services International Limited (ASX: APM; 'APM' or 'the Company') advises, in response to media speculation in today's Australian Financial Review, the Company is not in negotiations nor has appointed advisors in respect to the acquisition of Angus Knight.

As indicated in its ASX release on 29 August 2022, the Company continues to pursue accretive strategic acquisitions which involves ongoing initial discussions with a variety of targets.

The Company remains in compliance with its continuous disclosure obligations.

Ends -

Authorised for release by the CEO, and Company Secretary of APM Human Services International Limited.

For further information please contact:

Investors

Matt Cooper
Investor Relations Manager
E: matt.cooper@apm.net.au
P: +61-403 604 915

Ronn Bechler
Automic Group
E: ronn.bechler@automicgroup.com.au
P: +61-400 009 774

Media

Adrian Bradley
General Manager – Corporate Affairs
E: adrian.bradley@apm.net.au
P: +61-2 6214 8800

Tristan Everett
Automic Group
E: tristan.everett@automicgroup.com.au
P: +61-403 789 096

About APM

Founded in 1994 in Perth, Western Australia, APM is an international human services provider with the purpose of "Enabling Better Lives".

Each financial year, APM supports more than 1.1 million people of all ages and stages of life through its service offerings that include assessments; allied health and psychological intervention; medical, psycho-social and vocational rehabilitation; vocational training and employment assistance; and community-based support services.

With over 1,000 sites spanning 11 countries (Australia, United Kingdom, Canada, United States of America, New Zealand, Germany, Switzerland, Sweden, Spain, Singapore, and South Korea), APM's more than 10,000 team members work to enhance community health and wellbeing, delivering services to clients across the early childhood, youth, employment, insurance, justice, veterans, disability, and aged care sectors.

For further information please visit: <https://apm.net.au>