ASX Announcement

31 January 2019

Trading Update

MELBOURNE, Australia – SDI Limited (ASX: SDI) today announced that it has revised its expected Half Year guidance as announced on 19 December 2018.

The Company now expects that the revised unaudited after-tax profit to be in the range of $2.8m to $3.1m for the six months ending 31 December 2018, compared to $1.2m for the same period last year.

The revised guidance is driven by stronger than forecasted sales from Australian direct export sales and the favourable closing currency rates at 31 December 2018.

It is expected that the Half Year results (Appendix 4D) will be released on 15 February 2019.
