SENIOR MANAGEMENT CHANGE

Amcor announces today that Roelof Westerbeek, President Amcor Flexibles Asia Pacific is leaving the company to pursue other opportunities. We thank Roelof for his commitment and contributions to the business and wish him well in his future endeavours.

Effective immediately, Michael Zacka, Chief Commercial Officer, will assume the role of President Amcor Flexibles Asia Pacific, in addition to his current responsibilities. Michael joined Amcor in July 2017 from Tetra Pak, where he spent 20 years leading businesses around the world including, most recently, as head of South Asia, East Asia and Oceania. He has significant experience in food and beverage packaging, especially throughout the Asian region.
