2 BUSINESS AND INVESTMENT RISKS

2.1 Overview

The Shares offered under this Prospectus are considered speculative. Activities of Range Resources are subject to a number of risks and other factors which may impact its future performance. Some of these risks can be mitigated by the use of safeguards and appropriate controls, however, many are outside the control of Range Resources and cannot be mitigated. There are also general risks associated with any investment in shares. Hence, investors should be aware that the performance of Range Resources may be affected and the value of its Shares may rise or fall over any given period. The Directors recommend that investors speak to their financial, legal or other advisor about these risks before making a decision to invest in the Shares.

The following summary, whilst not exhaustive, represents some of the major risk factors which potential investors need to be aware of.

2.2 General risks

An investment in the Company involves general risks associated with any investment in shares of companies that are listed on a stock exchange. Many factors affect the financial performance of Range Resources and/or the price of its Shares. General risk factors include:

Movement in Australian and overseas share markets and financial markets generally

A number of factors affect the performance of stockmarket investments that could also affect the price at which shares trade on the ASX and AIM. Movements on international stock-markets, local interest rates and exchange rates, domestic and international economic conditions, as well as government taxation and other policy changes may affect the stock-market.

Regulatory risks

The Company is listed on the ASX in Australia and AIM in the United Kingdom and has operations in the Americas, Africa and Europe. The Company's exploration and development activities in these regions are subject to extensive laws and regulations relating to numerous matters including resource licence consent, conditions including environmental compliance and rehabilitation, taxation, employee relations, health and worker safety, waste disposal, protection of the environment, native title and heritage matters, protection of endangered and protected species and other matters. The Company requires permits from regulatory authorities to authorise the Company's operations. These permits relate to exploration, development, production and rehabilitation activities.

Obtaining necessary permits can be a time consuming process and there is a risk that Company will not obtain these permits on acceptable terms, in a timely manner or at all. The costs and delays associated with obtaining necessary permits and complying with these permits and applicable laws and regulations could materially delay or restrict the Company from proceeding with the development of a project.

Economic conditions

Economic conditions, both domestic and global, may affect the performance of the Company. The Company's future possible revenue and share price can be affected by these conditions all of which are beyond the control of the Company and the Directors. In addition, the Company's ability to raise additional capital, should it be required, may be affected.

Litigation risks

The Company is exposed to possible litigation risks including, tenure disputes, environmental claims, occupational health and safety claims and employee claims. Further, the Company may be involved in disputes with other parties in the future which may result in litigation. Any such claim or dispute if proven, may impact adversely on the Company's operations, financial performance and financial position. Please refer to section 4.5 for details of current litigation.

Acts of terrorism and outbreak of international hostilities

An act of terrorism or an outbreak of international hostilities may occur, adversely affecting consumer confidence, customer spending and share market performance. This may have an adverse impact on Range Resources' operating, financial and share price performance.

Sovereign risk

A substantial amount of Range Resources' properties and operations are located in Trinidad and Tobago.

Possible sovereign risks associated with operating in Trinidad and Tobago include, without limitation, changes in the terms of legislation, changes to royalty arrangements, changes to taxation rates and concessions and changes in the ability to enforce legal rights. Any of these factors may, in the future, adversely affect the financial performance of the Company and the market price of its shares.

No assurance can be given regarding future stability in Trinidad and Tobago or any other country in which the Company may, in the future, have an interest.

Specific risks

Illiquidity

The Company is listed on the ASX in Australia and AIM in the United Kingdom. Trading of the Company securities on AIM was suspended from 11 December 2014 and on ASX from 12 December 2014 until 8 June 2015 and 9 June 2015 respectively. Whilst the Company's shares have now been reinstated to trading no certainty can be provided that there will be a liquid market for shares in the Company.

Reliance on key personnel

The Company's performance is substantially dependent on its senior management and key technical personnel to continue to develop and manage the Company's services. The loss of key management could have a material adverse effect on the business and consequently its financial performance.

The future success of the Company is also dependent on its ability to attract and retain competent management and personnel. The inability to attract such personnel may adversely affect the business of the Company.

Access to funding

The Company's ability to explore for and develop oil and gas reserves is dependent on its ability to generate and otherwise access capital to fund these activities. The Company will require further funding through equity or debt financing, joint ventures, production sharing arrangements, asset disposals or other means. Failure to obtain sufficient financing for the Company's activities and future projects may result in delay and indefinite postponement of exploration, development or production on the Company's properties or even loss of a property interest.

Any additional equity financing will dilute shareholdings, and debt financing, may involve restrictions on business strategy and financing and operating activities.

Reserves and resources estimates

Estimating oil and gas reserves involves subjective judgements and determinations based on geological, technical, contractual and economic information.

Estimates which were valid when originally calculated may alter significantly when new information or techniques become available. In addition, by their very nature, resource estimates are imprecise and depend to some extent on interpretations, which may prove to be inaccurate. As further information becomes available through additional fieldwork and analysis, the estimates are likely to change. This may result in alterations to development and mining plans which may, in turn, adversely affect the Company's operations.

Exploration and development activities

There is a significant element of technical risk in exploring for and developing oil and gas fields.

Exploration activities are inherently uncertain in their outcome. Failure to discover hydrocarbons in commercially viable quantities could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business.

Health, Safety, Security and the Environment

Exploration, development and production of oil and gas involve risks which may impact the health and safety of personnel, the community and the environment.

Failure to manage these risks could result in injury or loss of life, damage or destruction of property, and damage to the environment.

Commodity price change

The Company's revenues, profitability, cash flows and rate of growth are significantly impacted by prevailing oil prices. Crude prices are affected by numerous and complex worldwide factors beyond the Company's control, including international supply and demand, the level of consumer product demand, weather conditions, the price and availability of alternative fuels, actions taken by governments and international cartels, and global economic and political developments.

Financial statements

The Auditors of the Company have provided a qualified opinion in the most recent full year accounts and a qualified conclusion in the most recent half year financial statements. This is due to their inability to obtain sufficient evidence to support the carrying value of the Company's investment in Strait Oil & Gas. Should there be any subsequent amendment required to the value of this asset it would result in an impairment and reduction in net assets.

The rights attaching to ownership of the Shares to be issued pursuant to this Prospectus are detailed in the Constitution of the Company, which may be inspected during normal business hours at the Company's registered office. Set out below is a summary of the rights, liabilities, privileges and restrictions that will attach to the Shares.

The date of last trading in the Company's Shares on ASX prior to the date of this Prospectus was 9 December 2014 and the last traded price on ASX prior to the date of this Prospectus was $0.01.

4.5 Litigation

Mark Patterson

The Company has received a demand for payment of approximately US$2.7 million from Mark Patterson who was engaged by the Company pursuant to a Consulting Agreement over a period from 2010 - 2014. Mr. Patterson is claiming he terminated his contract, dated 29 August 2013, with good reason, as defined in the contract, due to a reduction in duties, and in that circumstance he claims to be entitled to full payment for the remainder of the term of the contract plus various other payments. The Company has engaged legal advisers to assist with this claim and will strongly defend our position. The parties will attend mediation in an attempt to resolve the matter, and if resolution is not possible, the claim will be heard through an arbitration process in Texas. It is currently expected that the arbitration hearing will occur in the second half of 2015. Given the process is still at an early stage, the Company is unable to quantify any likely financial impact of a successful claim against the Company however, it will not have a material impact.

Crown Capital Partners

The Company is involved as a defendant in a court action in Alberta, Canada related to an alleged breach in early 2013 of an exclusivity undertaking in a commitment letter from a potential financier dated 6 November 2012. The claim is for approximately C$500,000. The Company strongly refutes the allegations and intends to vigorously defend our position. A Statement of Defence has been filed and the Company is currently in the discovery phase of litigation. There is no date as yet for a court hearing and the Company is not in a position therefore to determine the likely financial impact of any successful claim. The Company however, believes that any outcome against the Company will not have a material impact.

Lanndon LLC & Benedict Silverman

Los Bajos Oil Limited is a defendant in a court action in federal court in the state of Connecticut, USA which dates back to the period prior to Los Bajos being acquired by the Company in 2011. The claim relates to an alleged breach of contract with respect to payments due by Los Bajos to Lanndon LLC under a settlement agreement dated May 2011. The Company has an indemnity from the sellers of Los Bajos so even in the event of a successful claim against the Company, it does not anticipate any cost to the Company.

Lind Asset Management LLC

Pursuant to the Company's US$15 million loan facility provided by Lind Asset Management, LLC ("Lind"), the Company made an undertaking to Lind that, to the best of its ability and subject to AIM and ASX listing rules, the Company's Shares would not be suspended from trading on either the ASX or AIM market for more than 5 days, commencing from the execution date of the loan facility agreement. With the ongoing suspension, the Company fully utilized these allowed days which subsequently provided Lind with certain additional rights under the agreement, including the ability to demand re-payment of the loan.

On 18 February 2015 Range received a statutory demand from Lind demanding repayment of approximately US$7.2 million that Lind alleges is due and payable.

On 9 March 2015, Range submitted an application to the Supreme Court of Western Australia to set aside the statutory demand. This application was heard by the Court on 5 June 2015 and the Court reserved its decision.

4.6 Continuous Disclosure and Documents Available for Inspection

The Company is a "disclosing entity" for the purposes of section 111AC and section 713 of the Corporations Act. As such, it is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations which require it to disclose to the ASX any information of which it is, or becomes, aware concerning the Company and which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of securities of the Company.

The Shares to be issued pursuant to this Prospectus are continuously quoted securities.

In general terms, prospectuses in relation to continuously quoted securities are only required to contain information in relation to the effect of the issue of securities on the Company and the rights and liabilities attaching to the securities. It is not necessary to include general information in relation to all of the assets and liabilities, financial position and performance, profits and losses or prospects of the issuing company.

Having taken such precautions and having made such enquiries as are reasonable, the Company believes that it has complied with the general and specific requirements of ASX as applicable from time to time throughout the 12 months before the issue of this Prospectus which required the Company to notify ASX of information about specified events or matters as they arise for the purpose of ASX making that information available to the stock market conducted by ASX.

Information that is already in the public domain has not been reported in this Prospectus other than that which is considered necessary to make this Prospectus complete.

The Company, as a disclosing entity under the Corporations Act states that:

- (a) it is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations;
- (b) copies of documents lodged with ASIC in relation to the Company (not being documents referred to in section 1274(2)(a) of the Corporations Act) may be obtained from, or inspected at, the offices of ASIC; and
- (c) it will provide a copy of each of the following documents, free of charge, to any person on request during the application period for this Prospectus:
 - (i) the Annual Financial Report for the Company for the financial year ended 30 June 2014, (being the last annual financial report to be lodged with ASIC in relation to the Company before the issue of this Prospectus);
 - (ii) all documents used to notify the ASX of information relating to the Company under the provisions of the ASX listing rules in the period since lodgement of the Annual Financial Report for the financial year ended 30 June 2014 and ending before the issue of this Prospectus.

4.7 Documents Incorporated in Prospectus

Pursuant to Section 712 of the Corporations Act the following documents have been released to ASX and lodged with ASIC since the 2014 Annual Financial Report was lodged, and are incorporated in this Prospectus. A copy of these documents can be obtained free of charge from the ASX website or from the Company by telephoning Range Resources on +618 6205 3012 or emailing Range Resources at admin@rangeresources.co.uk during the application period for the Prospectus:
