Attached is a Form 604 lodged on behalf of Century Plaza Investments Pty Ltd and other parties named in the notice (Lew Group). The Form reflects changes in the voting power and relevant interests of the Lew Group following the combination of Premier Investment Limited's Apparel Brands business with Myer Holdings Limited (Myer) and related transaction steps.

In connection with that transaction, Premier Investment Limited (Premier) implemented an In-Specie Distribution on 6 February 2025 to distribute of the securities it held in Myer to Premier's shareholders on a pro-rata basis (as set out in further detail in the Explanatory Booklet lodged by Premier with the ASX on 17 December 2024).

As a result of the In-Specie Distribution, each member of the Lew Group has gone from having a relevant interest in Myer of 31.37%, reflecting the securities in Myer held by Premier (noting the Lew Group's voting power in Premier is more than 20%), to each holding a direct relevant interest in Myer shares, but with a combined voting power of 26.77% (given each member of the Lew Group are associates of one another in relation to the affairs of Myer).

Yours sincerely

Kim Davis
Company Secretary

DIRECTIONS

- (1) If there are a number of substantial holders with similar or related relevant interests (eg. a corporation and its related corporations, or the manager and trustee of an equity trust), the names could be included in an annexure to the form. If the relevant interests of a group of persons are essentially similar, they may be referred to throughout the form as a specifically named group if the membership of each group, with the names and addresses of members is clearly set out in paragraph 6 of the form.
- (2) See the definition of "associate" in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (3) See the definition of "relevant interest" in sections 608 and 671B(7) of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (4) The voting shares of a company constitute one class unless divided into separate classes.
- (5) The person's votes divided by the total votes in the body corporate or scheme multiplied by 100.
- (6) Include details of:
 - (a) any relevant agreement or other circumstances because of which the change in relevant interest occurred. If subsection 671B(4) applies, a copy of any document setting out the terms of any relevant agreement, and a statement by the person giving full and accurate details of any contract, scheme or arrangement, must accompany this form, together with a written statement certifying this contract, scheme or arrangement; and
 - (b) any qualification of the power of a person to exercise, control the exercise of, or influence the exercise of, the voting powers or disposal of the securities to which the relevant interest relates (indicating clearly the particular securities to which the qualification applies).

See the definition of "relevant agreement" in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (7) Details of the consideration must include any and all benefits, money and other things that any person from whom a relevant interest was acquired has or may be entitled to, or the person from whom the relevant interest was acquired.
- (8) If the substantial holder is unable to determine the identity of the person (eg. if the relevant interest arises because of an option) write "unknown".
- (9) Give details, if appropriate, of the present association and any change in that association since the last substantial holding notice
