Market commentary

Adding to November's gains, the Australian share market ended the calendar year on a high, rising +7.3% for the month to bring 2023 gains to +12.4%. In December, shares in Australia and globally were driven predominantly by the US Federal Reserve's monetary policy pivot – from a tightening to an easing stance. The so-called 'Santa Rally' was broad-based with almost every sector posting gains, although Real Estate led the way, surging +11.2% as bond yields continued to fall. Falling bond yields also pushed Health Care stocks higher (up +9.1%), coupled with receding concerns about the impact of GLP-1 (obesity-fighting) drugs on various healthcare companies.

Argo will report its half-year profit result on 5 February 2024. For more information, see Key Dates in the Shareholder Centre section of our website: argoinvestments.com.au/shareholder-centre.
