

Strike Energy Launches Interactive Investor Hub

Strike Energy Limited (Strike - ASX: STX) announces the launch of its new Investor Hub. The interactive platform will replace the current website at www.strikeenergy.com.au and will allow existing and prospective shareholders to better engage with the Company.

Strike will host ASX announcements, presentations, news and other media on their Investor Hub. The platform will also allow Strike's investor community to ask questions and post comments directly to the company in response to news flow and business updates.

Strike's Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director, Stuart Nicholls, commented

"We look forward to continuing to update investors in a more engaging environment through the new investor hub. The investor hub enables us to interact with our shareholders and the wider investor community in a more direct, transparent and frequent way. We encourage our shareholders to sign up which will enable you to ask questions and provide feedback on any of our ASX announcements or other updates and engage in an open dialogue with Management."

Investors with complete Investor Hub accounts will be alerted to Strike's news directly and may be invited to exclusive company events.

This announcement is authorised for release by the Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer.
