CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

For the Year Ended 30 June 2022

Commitment to Corporate Governance

The Directors and management of Mach7 Technologies Limited (Mach7 or the Company) are committed to conducting the business of Mach7 and its controlled entities (the Group) in an ethical manner and in accordance with the highest standards of corporate governance. The Company has adopted and substantially complies with the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Fourth Edition) (Recommendations) to the extent appropriate to the size and nature of the Group's operations.

Corporate Governance Statement

The Company has prepared this statement which sets out its corporate governance practices during the financial year on 30 June 2022. This statement identifies any Recommendations that have not been followed and provides reasons for not following such Recommendations. This statement is current as at 16 September 2022 and has been approved by the Board of Mach7.

Corporate Governance Statement Publication

In accordance with ASX Listing Rules 4.10.3 and 4.7.4, this Corporate Governance Statement is published on the Company's website (www.mach7t.com/about-us/corporate-governance) (Website) together with an Appendix 4G with ASX at the same time that the Company's 2022 Annual Report is lodged with ASX. The Appendix 4G particularises each Recommendation that needs to be reported against by the Company and provides shareholders with information as to where relevant governance disclosures can be found.

The Company's charters and policies are also all available under the Corporate Governance section of the Company's Website.

Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight A listed entity should clearly delineate the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and regularly review their performance.
1.1 A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management 	Yes	The Board has adopted a charter (Board Charter) which establishes the role of the Board and its relationship with management. The Board Charter clearly articulates the division of responsibilities between the Board and management, in order to manage expectations and avoid misunderstandings about their respective roles and accountabilities. As detailed in the Board Charter, the primary role of the Board is the protection and enhancement of long-term shareholder value, and its responsibilities include the overall strategic direction of the Group, establishing goals for management and monitoring the achievement of these goals. The Board is also responsible for the overall corporate governance of Mach7. The Board Charter additionally sets out the role and responsibility of the Chairman and outlines the Board's policy on when and how Directors may seek independent professional advice at the expense of the Company. The Board has delegated to the Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer (MD&CEO) the authority and power to manage Mach7 and its businesses within levels of authority specified by the Board from time to time. The MD&CEO may sub-delegate aspects of his authority and power but remains accountable to the Board for Mach7's performance and is required to report regularly to the Board on the progress being made by Mach7's business units. In accordance with the Board Charter, the Board will review the Board Charter at least annually, and in doing so will continually review the division of functions between

Whilst the Company has not set formal measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity, the Company is nonetheless committed to recruiting employees from a diverse pool of qualified candidates. The Board is charged with the responsibility of undertaking an annual review to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ assess its policies and procedures in reference to its diversity objectives; ▪ determine whether its diversity policies and procedures are and are likely to continue to be appropriate; and ▪ ensure that the Company, and its policies and procedures, comply with all applicable legal requirements in respect of diversity and that such policies and procedures remain relevant and effective. As at 30 June 2022, the Group had 94 employees including 24 (26%) women. 2 women hold senior executive roles. For the purposes of determining the number of female senior executives in the Company, the Company has defined "senior executive" as the Chief Executive Officer and all his/her direct reports. There are currently no female directors on the Board and 2 out of 8 direct reports to the Board are female (25%).
1.6 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken	Yes	The Directors aim to undertake an annual process to review the performance and effectiveness of the Board and individual directors. The Company Secretary oversees this process. The review assesses, amongst other things: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ the effectiveness of the Board in meeting the requirements of its charter; ▪ whether the Board has members with the appropriate mix of skills and experience to properly perform their functions;

The Chairman leads a discussion of the questionnaire results with the Board as a whole and provides feedback to individual Directors as necessary. The Board last undertook a self-appraisal and evaluation in June 2022.
1.7	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Yes	The Board aims to undertake an annual review of the performance of the MD&CEO, using where necessary an external consultant, against appropriate key performance indicators (KPI's). These KPI's can include both financial and non-financial targets. The MD&CEO is expected to undertake an annual review of his/her director reports (senior executives) in the same manner. During the reporting period, the Board conducted its annual review of the MD&CEO. This review focused on corporate achievements including whether corporate goals had been met. It also focused on individual contributions to those corporate achievements.

2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Yes	The Board aims to be comprised of Directors who have, at all times, the appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity relevant to Mach7's businesses and the Board's responsibilities. This objective is enumerated in the Board Charter, which can be found on the Company's website. The Board regularly evaluates the mix of skills, experience and diversity at the Board level, and has developed and adopted a Board skills matrix which has been tailored to the circumstances and requirements of Mach7. It is intended that the skills matrix will be reviewed at least annually by the Board to ensure that ongoing needs in relation to supervising the Company and its operations are being met, and to take into account any changes in the Company's circumstances and strategic priorities. A copy of the matrix is included in this report at Appendix A. The objectives of the skills matrix adopted by the Board are to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify the skills, knowledge, experience and capabilities that are desired of the Board as a whole, in order for the Board to fulfil its role and in light of Mach7's strategic direction;

			regular Board meeting processes require Directors to advise the Board of any interest they have that has the potential to conflict with the interests of the Group, including any development that may impact their perceived or actual independence. If the Board determines that a Director's status as an independent Director has changed, that determination will be disclosed and explained in a timely manner to the market. The length of service of each Director is set out above.
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	Yes	All Non-Executive Directors on the Company's Board as at the date of this statement are independent directors.
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Yes	Mr David Chambers (Chairman) is an independent Non-Executive Director. The positions of Chairman and CEO are held by separate persons.
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Partially	The Board is tasked with ensuring that an effective induction process is in place for newly appointed Directors, and the review of those induction procedures. As Directors join the Board, they are given the opportunity to meet with every other non-executive Director, and the CEO, managing Director. During those discussions, they are provided with certain information about the business and are directed to the website which contains all relevant corporate governance policies and Charters, however the Board notes this process could be made more formal. The Board receives ongoing governance updates as required, including in relation to recent legislative and regulatory changes and developments in corporate governance. All Directors have ongoing access to information on the Company's operations and to the Group's senior management.

			Each Director, at any time, is able to seek reasonable independent professional advice on any business-related matter at the expense of the Company. Directors also have access to adequate internal resources to seek any information from any officer or employee of the Group, or to require the attendance of management at meetings to enable them as Directors to fulfil their duties. There is, however, no formal program for professional development.
Principle 3 – Instill a culture of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly A listed entity should instill and continually reinforce a culture across the organisation of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly
3.1	A listed entity should articulate and disclose its values.	No	The Board and management are currently reviewing the Company's Purpose, Goals and Values. Once finalised the Company's Statement of Values will be uploaded to the Company Website.
3.2	A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material breaches of that code. 	Yes	The Board is committed to observing the highest standards of corporate practice and business conduct. Accordingly, the Board has adopted a Code of Conduct, a copy of which is available on the Website, and which sets out the way in which Mach7 seeks to conduct business, namely in an honest and fair manner, acting only in ways that reflect well on Mach7 in strict compliance with all laws and regulations. The Code of Conduct articulates acceptable practices for directors, senior executives and employees, to guide their behaviour and to demonstrate the commitment of the Company to ethical practices. The Company also seeks to ensure that advisers, consultants and contractors are aware of the Company's expectations as set out in its Code of Conduct. Responsibilities of Mach7's personnel under the Code of Conduct include protection of Mach7's business, using Mach7's resources in an appropriate manner, protecting

8.3	A listed entity which has an equity-based remuneration scheme should: (a) have a policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Yes	Mach7 has adopted a Long Term Incentive Plan (LTIP) to assist in the motivation, retention and reward of its employees. The LTIP is designed to align the interests of senior executives more closely with the interests of shareholders by providing an opportunity for senior executives to receive an equity interest in Mach7 through the granting of securities, the vesting of which is subject to satisfaction of certain performance or time-based conditions. A summary of the LTIP was provided in the Company's notice of meeting for the General Meeting held on 11 November 2021, where a grant of LTIP was last approved by shareholders. Participants in the LTIP are not permitted to hedge or otherwise limit the economic risk of participating in the LTIP. In addition, the Company has adopted a Securities Trading Policy which prohibits Directors and senior executives and other key management personnel and their closely related parties from entering into any arrangement that would have the effect of, directly or indirectly, granting any form of security (whether by way of charge, mortgage, pledge or otherwise) over any Mach7 securities which are unvested or subject to a holding lock, to secure any obligation or enter into any margin lending arrangement involving the Company's securities. A copy of the Company's Securities Trading Policy is available on the Website.

Appendix A: Board Skills Matrix

The Board skills matrix was last undertaken in September 2022. Each board member rated their skill set from 0–3 (3 being the most experienced) in several areas deemed to be relevant to the Company, as noted in the chart below. Those rankings were averaged across the four Directors who were on the Board at the time the evaluation was undertaken.
