DIGITALX RECEIVES 41 BITCOIN FROM MT GOX

DigitalX Limited (ASX:DCC, OTCQB: DGGXF) ("DigitalX", "the Company") is pleased to announce that it has now received its Bitcoin distribution from the Administrators of the Mt Gox Exchange, valued as at the date of this announcement at approximately AUD$5.72 million.

Background

Prior to its listing on ASX in May 2014, the Company was a victim of the hacking of the Mt Gox Crypto Exchange, which saw 351 of the Company's then-held Bitcoin lost in the hacking of the Mt Gox Crypto Exchange. The loss of those Bitcoin was referenced in the Company's Prospectus dated 12 May 2014.

Following the recovery of a number of Bitcoin stolen in that hacking event by the Administrator of the Mt Gox Crypto Exchange and following the finalisation of legal proceedings between the Company and its previous CEO in December 2024, the Company has now received into its custody the following Bitcoin and Bitcoin Cash:

- 41.98 Bitcoin (BTC)
- 52.48 Bitcoin Cash (BCH)

In addition, the Company notes that it is entitled to receive a distribution of 18,152,805 Japanese Yen (JPY), based on information Administrators have made available on the information portal, which has not yet been received. JPY received will be converted into Australian Dollars and transferred into the Company's working capital account.

DigitalX Chair, Toby Hicks commented:

"The return of nearly 42 of the Company's Bitcoin from this hacking event over 10 years ago is a significant event. Importantly for the Company, these Bitcoin add to our existing Bitcoin reserves and can be further utilised in our revised strategy of seeking to generate revenues from our substantial asset portfolio."
