

Auric Enhances Mining Team Scaling Up To Mine Munda Starter Pit

The Announcement

Auric Mining Limited (ASX: AWJ) (Auric or the Company) is pleased to advise it has made several key personnel appointments as it prepares to mine a starter pit at the Munda Gold Deposit, near Widgiemooltha, WA.

Key appointments include:

Mr Adrian Barnett

Mr Barnett is a geologist and database management specialist. Over a period of 30 years, he has held numerous roles across data base management and mine geology including Senior Mine Geologist and Chief Mine Geologist at mines in West Australia and Zambia. For the past 12 years, he held the role of Specialist – Reserves Data Management, for Rio Tinto. Mr Barnett holds a Bachelor of Applied Science (Geology) from RMIT, Melbourne in addition to a Graduate Diploma in Computing from Curtin University and a Graduate Diploma of Mining from the University of Ballarat.

Mr Matthew Graham-Ellison

Mr Graham-Ellison is an experienced gold mining professional. Since 2010 he has worked for Evolution Mining as an Open Pit Mine Geologist and Resource Geologist. Mr Graham-Ellison holds a Bachelor of Science from the University of Newcastle, majoring in Earth Sciences and a Master of Geostatistics from the University of Adelaide.

Mr Mark Lewis

Mr Lewis has built a 30-year career in the mining industry with more than two decades experience in supervisory and management positions, including Open Pit Superintendent, Registered Manager and Mine Manager at mining operations throughout West Australia and Queensland. Mr Lewis will be the Statutory Site Senior Executive at the Munda Gold Mine.

Managing Director, Mark English, said:

"We have secured three outstanding senior personnel to lead our mining operations. With decades of experience, they add to the growing, dynamic Auric team.

"With the Munda starter pit commencing mining shortly we are rapidly transitioning into our flagship project.

"These senior appointments broaden our management and technical expertise and capabilities, underpinning our strategy to optimise the performance of the Munda Gold Mine. We have exciting times ahead," said Mr English.

This announcement has been approved for release by the Board of Auric Mining Ltd.
