Highways England Digital Enforcement Camera System Order (for HADECS3)

Redflex Holdings Limited (ASX:RDF) today announces that its U.K. subsidiary, Redflex Traffic Systems Limited (Redflex U.K.), has received an order from Highways England for AUD5.8 million worth of deployments of the REDFLEX HADECS3X digital enforcement camera systems which have Home Office Type Approval (HOTA). These systems will be delivered to Highways England and installed over the next 17 months.

The Company is extremely pleased to continue its important relationship with Highways England in the United Kingdom and to make an important contribution to Highways England's commitment to road safety and traffic management on its Smart Motorways.

This order will continue to contribute to the Highways Agency Digital Enforcement Compliance System 3 (HADECS3) system on England's Strategic Road Network (which is over 4,000 miles of motorways and trunk ways throughout England). HADECS3 is part of Highways England's Smart Motorways Programme.
