Update to FY17 TTV Forecast

Helloworld Limited (HLO) today announced an improvement in forecast TTV for the FY17 year to between $5.3bn and $5.4bn.

As announced previously, HLO will provide earnings guidance in August and Andrew Burnes, Helloworld CEO, said the increased TTV comes about as a result of the merger with the AOT Group Limited with a full year of TTV coming through in FY17 and improved trading conditions in the corporate division, QBT driven by various factors including the successful bids for the NT Government account and the PWC account.
