October 14th 2019: Leading provider of vertically integrated recruitment and services, The GO2 People Ltd (ASX:GO2) ("The GO2 People", "GO2" or "the Company") is pleased to announce that it has appointed GO2 Co-Founder, Paul Goldfinch, to the Board of Directors as an Executive Director.

Paul Goldfinch

Mr Goldfinch is a proven senior executive with 15 years' experience in the recruitment industry, both in Australia and overseas. Prior to starting GO2, he held senior management and business development positions with national and international labour hire providers, during which time he has developed an intimate understanding of the sector. Mr Goldfinch is a major shareholder of GO2 and is focused on contributing to the future success of the Company.

The GO2 People's Company Chair Darren Cooper: "We are very pleased to have bolstered our Board with the appointment of Paul. He is very passionate about the success of the Company and is a high calibre professional whose recruitment experience tailors perfectly into our decision to focus our energy on the core recruitment business."

Co-Founder Paul Goldfinch: "As a proud Co-Founder and major shareholder of GO2, I welcome the opportunity to work with the current Board, and take a more hands on approach to the strategic direction of the Company. My background lends itself to the simplified Company strategy focusing on our recruitment business. I have complete confidence in the Company's future following recent restructuring and will support the Company through this transition."
