Voluntary Suspension Request

Mission NewEnergy Ltd (Mission) hereby requests a voluntary suspension of its securities with immediate effect.

In accordance with listing rule 17.2, Mission advises:

- A voluntary suspension is being requested in order to manage Mission's continuous disclosure requirements pursuant to the trading halt request made on 23 November in regards to the acquisition of a new entity which is material to the group. The acquisition will require Mission to re-comply with the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) Chapters 1 and 2. The company will stay in suspension until it re-complies with ASX Chapter 1 and 2.

If you have any queries in relation to this matter, please don't not hesitate to contact me.

Yours faithfully

Guy Burnett
Company Secretary
