

PERMITS L7 and EP 437 PERTH BASIN

Joint Venture Update

Triangle Energy (Global) Limited (Triangle Energy / the Company) (ASX:TEG) has received notices from Echelon Resources (ASX:ECH) and Strike Energy (ASX:STX) that they are withdrawing from the L7 and EP 437 permits in the Perth Basin and will not participate in the drilling of the third well as previously announced in the Farmout Agreements signed 28 February 2023 (STX) and 17 March 2023 (ECH). Triangle considers that there are attractive exploration targets in the L7 and EP 437 permits and will seek new joint ventures partners to join in the drilling of a third well in the permits.

Triangle will consider its position under the existing Farmout Agreements and Joint Operating Agreements.

Triangle Managing Director, Conrad Todd said "We are disappointed that Echelon and Strike have elected to depart the permits prior to drilling the third well in the farmout. Triangle continues to engage with Strike and Echelon on the remaining costs. Triangle rates these prospects highly and is intent on pursuing the exploration programme with alternate joint venture partners."
