SEEK appoints Julie Fahey to the Board

SEEK today announced that Julie Fahey has been appointed to the Board as a non-executive Director, effective immediately.

Julie has over 30 years of experience in technology, including in major organisations such as Western Mining, Exxon, Roy Morgan, General Motors and SAP, covering consulting, software vendor and Chief Information Officer roles.

In addition to her industry experience, Julie spent 10 years at KPMG as a partner with the firm, during which time she held roles as National Lead Partner Telecommunications, Media and Technology, and National Managing Partner – Markets. She was also a member of the KPMG National Executive Committee.

Commenting on the appointment, SEEK Chairman Neil Chatfield said, “We are delighted to welcome Julie to the SEEK Board. She brings a wealth of experience in technology strategy and management, and we look forward to her valuable contribution to the company’s future development.”
