- (e) Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the chair of a general meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

- (b) Where a person present at a general meeting represents personally or by proxy, attorney or Representative more than one member, the following rules apply to a vote taken on a show of hands:

 - (ii) the person's vote will be taken as having been cast for all the members the person represents.
- (c) A joint holder may vote at any meeting in person or by proxy, attorney or Representative as if that person was the sole holder. If more than one joint holder tenders a vote, the vote of the holder named first in the register must be accepted to the exclusion of the other or others.
- (d) The parent or guardian of an infant member may vote at a general meeting on evidence being produced of the relationship or of the appointment of the guardian as the directors may require and any vote so tendered by a parent or guardian of an infant member must be accepted to the exclusion of the vote of the infant member.
- (e) A person entitled to a share as a result of a Transmission Event may vote at a general meeting in respect of that share in the same manner as if that person were the registered holder of the share if, not less than 48 hours before the meeting, the directors have:
 - (i) admitted that person's right to vote at that meeting in respect of the share; or
 - (ii) been satisfied of that person's right to be registered as the holder of, or to transfer, the share under rule 4.3(c),and any vote tendered by that person must be accepted to the exclusion of the vote of the registered holder of the share.
- (f) Where a member holds any share on which any call due and payable to the Company has not been duly paid:
 - (i) that member is only entitled to be present at a general meeting and vote if other shares are held by that member on which no call is then due and payable; and
 - (ii) upon a poll, that member is not entitled to vote in respect of that share but may vote in respect of any other shares held upon which no call is then due and payable.

- (g) An objection to the qualification of a person to vote at a general meeting:
 - (i) must be raised before or immediately after the result of the motion on which the vote objected to is given or tendered; and
 - (ii) must be referred to the chair of the meeting, whose decision is final.
- (h) A vote not disallowed by the chair of a meeting under paragraph (g) is valid for all purposes.

 - (A) to vote on any amendment moved to the proposed resolutions and on any motion that the proposed resolutions not be put or any similar motion;
 - (B) to vote on any procedural motion, including any motion to elect the chair, to vacate the chair or to adjourn the meeting; and
 - (C) to act generally at the meeting; and
 - (v) even though the appointment may refer to a specific meeting to be held at a specified time or venue, where the meeting is reScheduled or adjourned to another time or changed to another venue, to attend and vote at the re-Scheduled or adjourned meeting or at the new venue.
- (e) The chair of a meeting may require any person purporting to act as a proxy, attorney or Representative to establish to the satisfaction of the chair that the person has been validly appointed as a proxy, attorney or Representative and is the person named in the relevant instrument of appointment, failing which the person may be excluded from attending or voting at the meeting. The chair may delegate his or her powers under this paragraph to any person.

- (f) Where a member appoints two proxies or attorneys to vote at the same general meeting and the authority of one is not conditional on the other failing to attend or vote, the following rules apply:

 - (ii) on a show of hands, neither proxy or attorney may vote; and
 - (iii) on a poll, each proxy or attorney may only exercise the voting rights the proxy or attorney represents.

- (j) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy or attorney is valid despite the transfer of the share in respect of which the instrument was given if the transfer is not registered by the time at which the instrument appointing the proxy or attorney is required to be received under paragraph (h).
- (k) The appointment of a proxy or attorney is not revoked by the appointer attending and taking part in the general meeting but, if the appointer votes on any resolution, the proxy or attorney is not entitled to vote, and must not vote, as the appointer's proxy or attorney on the resolution.
- (l) The Company must include with a notice of meeting a proxy form which must provide for the appointer:

14.2 Transfers not to be registered

Despite rules 4.1(g) and 4.2, a transfer giving effect to a takeover contract resulting from the acceptance of an offer made under a Proportional Takeover Bid must not be registered unless and until an Approving Resolution to approve the Proportional Takeover Bid has been passed or is taken to have been passed in accordance with rule 14.3.

14.3 Resolution

- (a) Where offers have been made under a Proportional Takeover Bid, the directors must:

14.4 Sunset

Rules 14.1, 14.2 and 14.3 cease to have effect at the end of three years beginning:

- (a) on the date this constitution is adopted by the Company; or
- (b) where those rules have been renewed in accordance with the Corporations Act, on the date those rules were last renewed.

15. BROADCASTING SERVICES ACT

15.1 Background

- (a) Unless an expression is defined in this constitution or the contrary intention appears in this rule 15, an expression has, in a provision of this rule 15 that deals with a matter dealt with by a particular provision of the Broadcasting Services Act, the same meaning as in that provision in the Broadcasting Services Act.
- (b) The Broadcasting Services Act imposes a number of conditions and restrictions on the ownership and control of radio broadcasting licences issued under the Broadcasting Services Act. Compliance with those conditions is essential as a failure to comply may lead to severe penalties including suspension or cancellation of the licence held by a licensee.
- (c) In order to protect the Company's investments in subsidiaries and other corporations that hold or may hold licences by ensuring compliance with the provisions of the Broadcasting Services Act, it is necessary for the Company to regulate the holding of shares in the Company in the manner set out in this rule 15.
- (d) In order to facilitate the Company's participation in any computerised or electronic system established or recognised by the Corporations Act or by the Listing Rules for the purpose of facilitating dealings in shares including, without limitation, electronic registration of transfer or shares, the requirements under any such computerised or electronic system may limit the Company's ability to restrict registration of transfers of shares in the Company prior to the Company being satisfied that there would be no breach of the Broadcasting Services Act. Accordingly, this rule 15 contains provisions consistent with the requirements of the Broadcasting Services Act which entitle the directors of the Company in certain circumstances to disenfranchise a person's rights and powers in relation to shares registered in a person's name and to order the divestiture of such shares.
- (e) The Company and its members acknowledge and recognise that the exercise of the powers given to the Company and its directors pursuant to this rule 15 may cause individual members considerable financial disadvantage. The members and Company also acknowledge that such a result is necessary to preserve the value of the Company's investments in any subsidiary Company or other corporation that holds or may hold a licence under the Broadcasting Services Act.

- (f) The powers conferred under this rule 15 are to be interpreted widely. In exercising the powers under this rule 15, the directors are entitled to have sole regard to the interests of the Company and its subsidiaries and may disregard any loss or disadvantage that may be suffered by individual members affected by the exercise of those powers. Members acknowledge that they have no right of action against the directors or the Company for any loss or disadvantage incurred by them as a result, whether directly or indirectly, of the directors exercising the powers pursuant to this rule 15.

15.2 Ineligible members

A person shall not be eligible to hold or continue to hold shares in the Company if, because of holding those shares and any other relevant circumstance, that person or some other person would contravene any one or more of the provisions of the Broadcasting Services Act.

15.3 Stock market transfers

Where a person becomes a member, that person must within 28 days from the date of becoming a member of the Company (or within such other period as the directors notify provided that where the period is reduced the Exchange gives its approval to the reduction), provide a statutory declaration made by the person, or in the case of a corporation, by a director or secretary, in a form approved by the directors, setting out information concerning:

- (a) whether the shares are held beneficially by the holder of the shares and, if not, who has beneficial interests in the shares;
- (b) whether the holder of the shares or any person who has a beneficial interest in the shares is in a position to exercise control of another broadcasting licence (giving particulars); and
- (c) any other information which the directors consider is necessary or desirable for determining the eligibility of that person or any other person to hold or continue to hold shares in the Company having regard to the provisions of the Broadcasting Services Act.

15.4 General right to require information

A person holding shares in the Company shall, if required by the Company from time to time and at any time, furnish to the Company within 28 days of being requested by the Company to do so (or within such other period as the directors notify provided that where the period is reduced the Exchange gives its approval to the reduction), a statutory declaration made by that person, or, in the case of a corporation by a director or secretary of that corporation, in a form approved by the directors setting out such information which in the opinion of the directors is necessary or desirable for the directors to determine the eligibility of that person or corporation to continue to hold shares in the Company having regard to the provisions of the Broadcasting Services Act.

15.5 Directors' power to disenfranchise and dispose

- (a) If a person fails to comply with the requirements of rule 15.3 and 15.4 the directors may:
 - (i) declare by notice in writing ("Suspension Notice") to the person who is the holder of the shares ("Transferred Shares") that all voting interests, dividend interests and winding up interests that the holder is entitled to in relation to shares in the Company (whether in respect of Transferred Shares or other shares) ("Specified Shares") under this constitution or by any law are suspended from the date of the Suspension Notice until a statutory declaration is provided as required by rule 15.3 or for such period as the directors otherwise determine; and
 - (ii) if within 14 days of the date of service of a Suspension Notice the relevant statutory declaration has not been provided, the directors may give notice in writing ("Disposal Notice") to the holder of the Specified Shares requiring that the Specified Shares shall, within 28 days (or such other period as is specified in the Disposal Notice provided that where the period is reduced the Exchange gives its approval to the reduction) be disposed of.

- (b) The Company has the right to procure the disposal of shares held by a person in the Company to the extent considered necessary by the directors to prevent a contravention or a continuation of a contravention of any of the provisions of the Broadcasting Services Act.
