Focus on Execution & Delivery of Milestones

Spacetalk is on course to become a sustainable business. We are evolving from a loss-making kids' wearables company two years ago into a cash generating, software driven, hardware - supported subscription platform, providing our customers a unique family safety solution.

Significant progress has been made delivering the milestones and objectives highlighted in our half year update to investors. We are actively selling in 11 international markets and continue to expand our product range whilst adding additional markets. This increases the addressable market and product sales opportunities. Our approach is capital light via digital channels specifically Shopify and Amazon, giving us the opportunity to expand both rapidly and in a controlled manner.

We are on track to deliver our product development schedule in the next couple of quarters. Key to unlocking future value is entirely new Spacetalk 2.0 software targeted for a first release in Q1 FY26. Existing customers and new users can expect a significant upgrade bringing our ecosystem to life with exciting new features and benefits. Our new software will drive recurring subscription revenue as we remain on track to deliver $20-25m ARR by 2026.

I am confident we are putting ourselves in the position to deliver returns for shareholders in the long term as we execute on our strategy.

Bought this for my 11 year old. I like how we can track him and he can call/text us. He thinks it is a little chunky for his wrist, but otherwise enjoying the ability to be able to communicate with family and friends when out and about. It's a great first step before a phone. Device Sales

- Sales declined slightly from 29.9k to 28.0k units, in line with expectations. Last year, Loop was launched for the first time, leading to pipeline fills as retailers stocked new inventory.
- Legacy stock, including Adventurer, was mostly cleared in the prior year at low margin, reducing its impact on current sales.
- This year, sales were primarily driven by sell-through and reordering patterns rather than initial pipeline fills, with sustainably healthier margins.

Spacetalk Mobile & App

- Mobile revenue increased by 62% ($1.9M in 1H24 to $3.0M in 1H25), reinforcing its higher value per user. App revenue declined from $1.6M to $1.2M as more users accessed the app for free by having a mobile subscription.
- Gross profit increased significantly for mobile users ($1.2M to $1.6M), reinforcing higher margins and stronger economics.
- The strategic shift towards mobile boosts overall profitability, as free app access for mobile users increases long-term engagement and retention.
- Future upside: While the app is currently free for mobile users, monetisation opportunities will exist with the release of Spacetalk App v2.0.

App Revenue – Strong Margins Despite Shift to Mobile Subscriptions

App remains a core part of the user experience, with increasing engagement through mobile plans.

('000)	1H24	1H25	%
Paying App Users (#)	55	26	(52%)
App revenue ($)	1,618	1,220	(25%)
App gross profit ($)	1,123	865	(23%)
Gross profit (%)	69%	71%

App Usage Remains Strong

- Since the launch of App 1.5 in 4Q25, the average time spent on the app has increased.

Shift to Mobile – Higher Revenue & Retention

- Paying app users declined 52% as more users were migrated to mobile plans, which include free app access. This transition aligns with our strategy to increase lifetime value and strengthen recurring revenue.

Future Monetisation Opportunities

- A large non-paying app user base remains an opportunity for future monetisation through expanded features and premium services.

High Gross Profitability Maintained

- Despite a revenue shift, gross profit margins improved from 69% in 1H24 to 71% in 1H25, reinforcing the app's strong unit economics even as its role in the ecosystem evolves.

School Revenue

Higher engagement drives margin growth despite declining school base

	1H24	1H25	%
Schools (#)	1,106	1,018	(8%)
(‘000)
School revenue ($)	908	918	1%
School gross profit ($)	845	877	4%
Gross profit (%)	93%	96%

School Participation

- The number of schools using Spacetalk services declined by 8% from 1,106 to 1,018, but the rate of decline has slowed compared to prior years. While we expect a decline over time, we continue to monitor trends closely.

Revenue Growth

- Despite a challenging market with statewide adoption of new school and student management platforms, that integrate attendance monitoring and messaging, revenue still grew by 1% from $0.91M to $0.92M. This growth was driven by higher usage per school rather than pricing changes. Increased SMS sales and greater engagement contributed to overall growth.

Gross Profit Margin

- Gross profit rose 4% from $0.85M to $0.88M, with margins improving from 93% to 96%. This reflects higher usage per school, which is driving stronger profitability, even as external market pressures increase.
