Notice of annual general meeting

Notice is given that the 2020 annual general meeting (Meeting or AGM) of members of the Company will be held on Friday, 20 November 2020 at 10am (Melbourne time).

In response to the global COVID-19 pandemic and governmental restrictions on physical gatherings the AGM is to be held as a virtual on-line meeting. As such, there will be no physical meeting where members and members' proxies can attend in person. A virtual meeting is also permitted by amendments made under section 5 of the Corporations (Coronavirus Economic Response) Determination (No.3) issued by the Commonwealth Treasurer dated 21 September 2020 (Determination).

To give shareholders a reasonable opportunity to participate, shareholders may attend the annual general meeting virtually using either the Lumi online platform at <https://web.lumiagm.com> (using Meeting ID: 365-082-913) or the Lumi AGM app which you can download to your smartphone device from the Google Play Store™ or the Apple® App Store by searching for the app name 'Lumi AGM'.

Lumi enables shareholders to:

- See the Meeting presentation materials and listen to the Meeting live;
- Vote online during the Meeting; and
- Ask questions and make comments online during the Meeting.

Voting on all resolutions will be conducted by poll.

In the event of a technological failure that prevents shareholders from having a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting, the Company will provide an update on its website and the ASX platform to communicate the details of the postponed or adjourned annual general meeting to shareholders.

Direct voting

A shareholder can cast a direct vote by marking the "Vote Directly" box in step 1 of the voting form and the 'for', 'against' or 'abstain' box in step 3 of the voting form. Direct voting provides shareholders with an alternative to appointing a proxy to vote on their behalf.

If no direction is given by a shareholder on a resolution (i.e. if the shareholder does not mark any box for the resolution), the shareholder's vote will be invalid for that resolution.

Proxies

A shareholder entitled to vote has a right to appoint a proxy to vote on behalf of the shareholder. A proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company and can be either an individual or a body corporate.

Unless the Chairman of the meeting is your proxy, the KMP of the Company (which includes each of the directors) and their closely related parties will not be able to vote your proxy on the resolution contemplated by Item 2 of this Notice, unless you direct them how to vote. If you intend to appoint such a person as your proxy, please ensure that your proxy is directed how to vote on the resolution contemplated by Item 2 of this Notice by marking the voting box(es) for that resolution.

The Chairman of the meeting acting as proxy

A shareholder may appoint the Chairman of the meeting as proxy. In addition, if you direct your proxy how to vote and a poll is duly demanded but your proxy does not attend the meeting or does not vote on a resolution, the Chairman of the meeting will be taken to have been appointed as your proxy and is required to vote proxies as directed.

If the Chairman of the meeting is your proxy (or becomes your proxy by default) and you do not mark a voting box for the resolution contemplated by Item 2 of the Notice, then by completing and returning the voting form, you will be expressly authorising the Chairman of the meeting to vote as he or she sees fit in respect of the resolution contemplated by Item 2 of the Notice even though the resolution is connected with the remuneration of the Company's KMP.

The Chairman of the meeting intends to vote all available proxies in favour of each item of business.

Appointing two proxies

A shareholder that is entitled to cast two or more votes may appoint two proxies and may specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise. If no proportion or number is specified, each proxy may exercise half of the shareholder's votes. However, neither proxy may vote on a show of hands.

Appointing a body corporate representative as a proxy

If a shareholder appoints a body corporate as a proxy, that body corporate will need to ensure that it:

- appoints an individual as its corporate representative to exercise its powers at the meeting, in accordance with section 250D of the Corporations Act; and
- provides satisfactory evidence of the appointment of its corporate representative prior to commencement of the meeting.

If such evidence is not received before the meeting, then the body corporate (through its representative) will not be permitted to act as a proxy.

Lodgement of voting forms

A voting form accompanies this Notice and to be effective must be received at the company's share registry by no later than 10am (Melbourne time) on Wednesday 18 November 2020.

Voting forms may be lodged:

The power of attorney or a certified copy must be received by the Company at the company's share registry by no later than 10am (Melbourne time) on Wednesday 18 November 2020 in the manner set out above.

Corporate representatives

A body corporate that is a shareholder, or which has been appointed as a proxy, may appoint an individual to act as its representative at the annual general meeting. The appointment must comply with the requirements of section 250D of the Corporations Act. The representative should provide to Computershare evidence of his or her appointment, including any authority under which it has been signed, unless it has previously been given to the Company.

Explanatory Memorandum to shareholders

This EM has been prepared to help shareholders understand the business to be put to shareholders at the forthcoming annual general meeting. For the avoidance of doubt, this EM forms part of the Notice and should be read together with the Notice.

1 Financial report

The Corporations Act requires:

- the reports of the directors and auditors; and
- the annual financial report, including the financial statements of the Company, for the financial year ended 30 June 2020, to be laid before the annual general meeting. Neither the Corporations Act nor the Company's constitution requires a vote of shareholders on the reports or statements. However, shareholders as a whole will be given a reasonable opportunity to raise questions or comments on the management of the Company.

Also, a reasonable opportunity will be given to shareholders as a whole at the meeting to ask the Company's auditor questions relevant to the conduct of the audit, the preparation and content of the auditor's report, the accounting policies adopted by the Company in relation to the preparation of the financial statements and the independence of the auditor in relation to the conduct of the audit.

Shareholders can access a copy of the annual report on the Company's website at www.ACQfund.com.au

2 Remuneration Report

The Corporations Act requires the Company to put a resolution to shareholders, at the annual general meeting, to adopt the Company's Remuneration Report.

The Company's Remuneration Report for the financial year ended 30 June 2020 is found within the directors' report on page 18 of the Company's 2020 Annual Report.

The Company's Remuneration Report outlines remuneration policy and arrangements for the Company's key management personnel. The Company has no employees, only non-executive directors, and therefore does not have a remuneration policy for employees. Details of the non-executive directors' remuneration arrangements can be found on page 18 of the Company's Annual Report.

The vote on this resolution is advisory only and does not bind the directors or the Company. However, the Board will consider the outcome of the vote when reviewing the Company's remuneration policy.

Note: A voting exclusion applies to this resolution, as set out in the Notice.

Board recommendation

The Board unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of the adoption of the Remuneration Report.

3 Re-election of director

Under rule 62 of the Company's constitution, no director, who is not the managing director, may hold office for a continuous period in excess of three years or until the third annual general meeting following the director's appointment or election, whichever is the longer, without submitting for re-election. In accordance with this rule, Barry Fairley retires and being eligible, offers himself for re-election. His biographical details are set out below.

Barry Fairley

Barry has been a director of the Company since 10 February 2014.

Barry is the founder and former Managing Director of the Company's manager, Acorn Capital Limited and had responsibility for its strategic direction and management. Barry founded Acorn Capital in 1998 and has more than 40 years of investment experience. Prior to the formation of Acorn Capital, Barry was the Managing Director of Triako Resources Limited. During his 15 years at Triako Resources, Barry was responsible for the company's strategic direction and management, including the acquisition and financing of major projects. Barry also served as a partner/Director at McIntosh Securities Limited. Barry began his career as a Financial Analyst at Colonial Mutual Life.

Board recommendation

The Board (with Barry Fairley abstaining) unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of the re-election of Barry Fairley.
