

Longstanding Partnership between OneVue and Australian Unity deepens

OneVue (OVH) today announced that Australian Unity Wealth & Capital Markets (AUWCM) has entered into a five-year outsourced managed fund administration agreement with OVH which remains subject to satisfying APRA's review during the required notification period.

AUWCM will become OVH's largest single managed fund administration client and post AUWCM transitioning all of its funds OVH will see a 25% increase in the total number of items processed across the business. The transition will occur in product tranches beginning in the last quarter of 2020 and is expected to complete in 2021.

The agreement will see AUWCM's range of investment and property funds and investment bonds move onto OneVue's managed fund administration service. This transition will support AUWCM's client engagement as well as increasing the level of automation and efficiency for its range of investments.

Commenting on the win, OVH's managing director Connie McKeage said: "One of OVH's first clients was AUWCM. AUWCM's people and partnership are very special to OVH and it is really nice to see the partnership evolve from a long-standing managed fund installed software client to becoming OVH's largest single outsourced managed fund administration client."

OneVue deputy chief executive officer Richard Harris-Smith added: "The growth of our relationship with AUWCM to an outsourced administration service will benefit both AUWCM and OVH. AUWCM will be integrated into our highly automated and scalable model and I am very excited about this opportunity as we to continue to build on our managed funds business. I have very much enjoyed working with the Team at AUWCM and look forward to transitioning the product suite across to a more automated service and working alongside the Team at AUWCM to uplift the client experience."

Explaining that OneVue was best-positioned in the market to build on the service AUWCM was demanding for its investors General Manager Operations and Enterprise Services for AUWCM Sarah Keleher said: "We undertook an extensive review of providers and services to select a partner that can deliver high quality service to our clients now and into the future."
