SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

JINDALEE LITHIUM LIMITED

SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

Introduction

Jindalee Lithium Limited (Company) wishes to ensure that its stakeholders have confidence in the trading activities of directors, officers and employees in respect of the Company's securities.

This Securities Trading Policy (Policy) regulates dealings by directors, officers and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries (referred to in this Policy as Representatives) in securities issued by the Company and in certain circumstances, this Policy also applies to contractors, consultants and advisors.

The Company acknowledges that from time to time, Representatives may hold securities in the Company and that most investors are encouraged by these holdings. It is the responsibility of the individual Representative to ensure that any trading of the Company's securities by them complies with the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) Listing Rules, OTC Markets Group Inc Rules for International Companies and this Policy.

The Insider Trading Provision

Insider trading is a serious criminal offence. It may also result in civil liability.

In broad terms, a person will be guilty of insider trading if that person possesses information which is not generally available to the market and, if it were generally available to the market, would be likely to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities (eg. information that is price sensitive) and that person:

- (a) buys or sells securities in the Company; or
- (b) procures another person (eg. a family member, friend or family company, superannuation fund or trust) to buy or sell securities in the Company; or
- (c) communicates the information to a third party where that person knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the third party would be likely to buy or sell the securities or procure someone else to buy or sell the securities of the Company.

It does not matter how or where the person obtains the information – it does not have to be obtained from the Company to constitute inside information.

A person does not need to be a director, officer, employee, contractor or consultant of the Company to be guilty of insider trading in relation to securities in the Company. The prohibition extends to dealings through nominees, agents or other associates, such as family members, family trusts and family companies (referred to as Associates).

Examples of Inside Information

By way of guidance, to illustrate the prohibition described above, the following are possible examples of price sensitive information which, if made available to the market, may be likely to materially affect the price of the Company's securities:

- the Company is considering an acquisition, expansion or disposal of an interest in a major project;
- significant discoveries, exploration results or changes in reserve/resource estimates from mining tenements in which the Company has an interest;
- the threat of major litigation by or against the Company;
- changes to the Board, management or auditors;
- the Company's financial results materially exceeding (or falling short of) market expectation; and
- a share issue proposal.

This Policy does not contain an exhaustive analysis of the restrictions imposed on and the very serious ramifications of insider trading. Representatives who wish to obtain further advice on this matter are encouraged to contact the Company Secretary.

Dealing in the Securities of Other Companies

Representatives must not deal in securities of other companies if they possess "inside information" or price sensitive information in relation to the relevant company.

This restriction also extends to Company interests held in joint ventures and any trading in the securities of joint venture partners where there is awareness of non-public information.

Guidelines for Trading in the Company's Securities

Unless otherwise provided in this Policy, a Representative must not buy or sell Company securities in the following periods (Closed Periods):

- a) for at least one (1) trading day after any material announcement to the ASX;
- b) for at least two (2) weeks prior to and one (1) trading day after the following events:
 - the release of the Company's quarterly, half year and annual financial results to the ASX;
 - the Annual General Meeting and all other General Meetings; or
- c) any other period in which it is determined by the Board that there is in existence price sensitive information that has not been disclosed because the Company is relying on an exception to ASX Listing Rule 3.1 (continuous disclosure).

The Company may at its discretion vary this rule in relation to a particular period by general announcement to all employees either before or during the period.

In addition, if a Representative, consultant or contractor is in possession of price sensitive information which is not generally available to the market, then he or she must not deal in the Company's securities at any time.

Additional Trading restrictions for Directors and Some Employees

Additional restrictions on trading in the Company's securities apply to Directors of the Company, all executives reporting directly to the Managing Director (or equivalent) and any other employees, consultants or advisors of the Company considered appropriate by the Managing Director (or equivalent) and Company Secretary from time to time (Restricted Persons).

Restricted Persons generally hold positions where it can be assumed that they will have inside information regarding the Company. Accordingly, additional requirements apply for any proposed trading in shares by Restricted Persons.

Written Consent

If Representatives propose to deal in the Company's Securities (which includes entering into an agreement to deal) they must first:

- (a) complete and forward a "Notification Form to Deal in the Company's Securities" in the form of Part A of Schedule 1 to the "Notification Officer(s)" (as defined in Schedule 2); and
- (b) receive confirmation in the form of Part B of Schedule 1 signed by the Notification Officer(s) in their discretion to allow them to deal in the Company's Securities.

Notification of any dealing in the Company's Securities under this paragraph and the completion of Part B of the Notification Form to Deal in the Company's Securities does not constitute approval of the dealing by or on behalf of the Company.

Copies of written approvals must be forwarded to the Company Secretary prior to the approved purchase or sale transaction proceeding.

Confirmation

In addition to obtaining written consent to deal in the Company's securities, Representatives must confirm via written or email notice to the relevant Notification Officer(s) and the Company Secretary when the dealing in the Company's securities is completed.

Exceptional Circumstances

The Board may waive any or all of the requirements of the Securities Trading Policy to allow trading during a Closed Period where:

- the sale of the Company's securities is necessary to alleviate severe personal hardship.
- the Representative has entered into a binding commitment prior to the Company being in a Closed Period where it was not reasonably foreseeable at the time the commitment was made that a Closed Period was likely.
- the Representative is required by a court order, or there are court enforceable undertakings to transfer or sell the securities of the Company or there is some other overriding legal or regulatory requirement for him or her to do so.
- there are other circumstances which have not been identified in this Policy, that are deemed exceptional by the Board, and the proposed sale or disposal of the relevant securities is the only reasonable course of action available.

Representatives who apply for a waiver under exceptional circumstances must obtain written consent in accordance with this Policy prior to trading in the Company's securities.

Trading not Subject to the Securities Trading Policy

The following is excluded from the operation of this Securities Trading Policy:

- transfers of Company Securities between a Representative and their spouse, child, step-child, family company, family trust or superannuation scheme in which the Representative is a beneficiary.
- an investment in, or trading in units of, a fund or other scheme (other than a scheme only investing in the securities of the Company) where the assets of the fund or other scheme are invested at the discretion of a third party.
- where a Representative is a trustee, trading in the securities of the Company by that trust provided that the Restricted Person is not a beneficiary of the trust and any decision to trade during a Closed Period is taken by the other trustees or by the investment managers independently of the Representative.
- undertakings to accept, or the acceptance of a takeover offer.
- trading under an offer or invitation made to all or substantially all of the security holders, such as a rights issue, a security purchase plan, a dividend or distribution reinvestment plan and an equal access buy back, where the plan that determines the timing and structure of the offer have been approved by the Board. This includes decisions relating to whether or not to take up the entitlements and the sale of entitlements required to provide for the take up of the balance of entitlements under a renounceable pro rata issue.
- trading through participation in a share placement or other dealings approved by shareholders at a general meeting.
- the exercise (but not the sale of securities following exercise) of an option or a right under an employee incentive scheme, or the conversion of a convertible security, where the final date for the exercise of the option or right, or the conversion of the security, falls during a Closed Period and the Company has been in an exceptionally long Closed Period or the Company has had a number of consecutive Closed Periods and the Restricted Person could not reasonably have been expected to exercise it at a time when free to do so.

Ultimate discretion rests with the Chair of the Board in respect to granting a waiver to the requirements of this Securities Trading Policy to allow Representatives to trade in the shares of the Company, provided to do so would not be illegal.

Financial Arrangements

Directors and employees of the Company are prohibited from entering into financial arrangements such as margin loans, stock lending or any other arrangements involving equity of the Company where the lender or other third party is granted a right to sell, or compel the sale of, all or part of the Director or employee's securities held in the Company.

ASX Notification for Directors

Directors must notify the Company Secretary of any dealings in the Company's securities immediately when any such dealings occur. The Directors appoint the Company as their agent for the purposes of compliance with the disclosure requirements on Directors' share trading contained in ASX Listing Rule 3.19. Directors shall be responsible for providing information to the Company Secretary in order for him/her to ensure compliance with the Listing Rules.

If the Director engaged in trading during a Closed Period, the Director must confirm to the Company Secretary that written clearance to trade was provided by the Board, and the date on which this clearance was provided.

General

Representatives should comply with the spirit and intent of this Policy. Compliance with this Policy does not absolve that individual from complying with the law, which must be the overriding consideration when trading in the Company's securities.

Breach of the insider trading prohibition could expose individuals to criminal and civil liability. Breach of the insider trading laws or this Policy will be regarded as serious misconduct which may lead to disciplinary action and/or dismissal.

If there is any doubt as to the application of this Policy or in the case of suspected violation of this Policy, the matter should be referred to the Company Secretary. Senior Executives and Directors should contact the Chair.

Policy Review

This Policy will be reviewed annually.
