Dear Mr Dawson

Roots Sustainable Agricultural Technologies Ltd ('ROO'): Financial Condition Query

We refer to your letter dated 25 May 2023. In response to the questions outlined in the letter, we provide the following information (using your numbering):

- 1. Please explain the reason for delay in seeking shareholder approval for Mr Blumenthal's participation in the October 2022 Placement, in circumstances where:
 - ROO first announced the October 2022 Placement over 7 months ago and marked the announcement as price sensitive;
 - ROO announced that Mr Blumenthal and a company associated with Mr Blumenthal intended to participate in the March 2023 Placement notwithstanding that no shareholder approval had yet been sought for Mr Blumenthal's participation in the October 2022 Placement; and
 - ROO estimated it had nil quarters of funding available as at 31 March 2023.

The notice period under Israeli law for any Notice of Meeting (NOM) which seeks to obtain shareholder approval for any related party matter is 35 days. The notice period under Israeli law for any NOM that does not contain such resolutions is 21 days. Therefore, for the General Meeting held on 20 March 2023, it was agreed by the Board to leave out any related party resolutions to avoid delays in seeking shareholder approval for urgent funding initiatives, being refreshment of the Company's LR 7.1 placement capacity, consolidation of issued capital and approval of a future placement.

The Company announced to ASX on 21 February 2023 that it still intends to prepare a NOM seeking the required shareholder approval for Mr Blumenthal's participation in the October 2022 Placement, as well as other related party approvals, as soon as practicable. The NOM has been prepared by the Company and is in the process of being finalised and approved by the Board and will be sent to ASX for review shortly.

2. Noting the apparent materiality of the October 2022 Placement funding to ROO's financial condition, please explain why ROO did not update the market on the reasons behind the delay in seeking shareholder approval, and whether ROO considers this to be compliant with Listing Rule 3.1.

The Company announced to ASX on 21 February 2023 that it intends to prepare a NOM seeking the required shareholder approval for Mr Blumenthal's participation in the October 2022 Placement, as well as other related party approvals, as soon as practicable.

As the Company is still intending to seek shareholder approval for Mr Blumenthal's participation in the October 2022 Placement, the Company does not consider the delay is information that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the entity's securities, and as such is not required to be disclosed under Listing Rule 3.1.

As such, the Company considers it is in compliance with Listing Rule 3.1.

As noted in the response to question 1, the NOM has been prepared by the Company and is in the process of being finalised and approved by the Board, and will be sent to ASX for review shortly.

3. Is ROO of the view that it had a reasonable basis to state that it had received "firm commitments" to raise $650,000, given a significant proportion of the October 2022 Placement securities were allocated to Mr Blumenthal and the requisite meeting has still not yet eventuated? If so, please explain that basis.

Yes, ROO has received an application form from Mr Blumenthal to participate to an amount of A$200,000.

As stated above, the Company is still intending to seek shareholder approval for Mr Blumenthal's participation in the October 2022 Placement.

4. Does Roots expect to receive the funds from Mr Blumenthal in relation to the October 2022 Placement?

Yes

5. Please explain the reason for delay in seeking shareholder approval for Mr Blumenthal's participation in the March 2023 Placement, in circumstances where ROO estimated it had nil quarters of funding available as at 31 March 2023.

As noted above, the notice period under Israeli law for any NOM which seeks to obtain shareholder approval for any related party matter is 35 days. The notice period under Israeli law for any NOM that does not contain such resolutions is 21 days. Therefore, for the General Meeting held 20 March 2023, it was agreed to leave out any related party resolutions to avoid delays in seeking shareholder approval for urgent funding initiatives, being refreshment of the Company's LR 7.1 placement capacity, consolidation of issued capital and approval of a future placement.

The NOM seeking shareholder approval for Mr Blumenthal's participation in the March 2023 Placement has been prepared by the Company and is in the process of being finalised and approved by the Board, and will be sent to ASX for review shortly.

6. When does ROO expect to hold a meeting to approve Mr Blumenthal's participation in both Placements? What factors may effect this timeline?

As noted above, the NOM seeking shareholder approval for Mr Blumenthal's participation in the October 2022 and March 2023 Placements has been prepared by the Company and is in the process of being finalised and approved by the Board, and will be sent to ASX for review shortly.

Depending on ASX review time of the NOM, the meeting is expected to be held by early August 2023.

7. Does ROO consider that the financial condition of ROO is sufficient to warrant its continued listing on ASX as required under Listing Rule 12.2? In answering this question, please explain the basis for this conclusion, commenting specifically on the matters referred to at paragraph F(ii) to (iv) above, namely:

7.1 ROO's net cash used in operating activities for the quarter ended 31 March 2023 was $115,000;

7.2 ROO's cash and cash equivalents as at 31 March 2023 was $3,000; and

7.3 ROO's estimated that it had nil quarters of funding available as at 31 March 2023.

Yes.

There are a significant pipeline of pending orders at various stages with 30-40% profit margins that the Company will seek to secure, which will bring an estimated additional A$150-200k cash to the Company. Orders are completed in 4 stages as follows - Stage 1: Customers complete questionnaire with details of the project; Stage 2: Roots provides a quote and payment terms; Stage 3: Execution of the sales order; Stage 4: Payment. With the pending orders referred to above, Roots has provided the customers (Elite Agro and Silal in the UAE and Unicorn Farm Tech in Oman) with a quote and payment terms and expect to close in the coming days/week. Following execution (Stage 3) the payment terms are 60% upfront, 30% on shipment and 10% on completion of the installation. Once the UAE and Oman orders are executed, Roots will receive 60% upfront payment within a few days. There are additional orders in the pipeline at various points in the 4 stage process.

In parallel, the Company's cash expenditure has been significantly reduced by cutting down number of employees positions, halting R&D and reducing S&M expenses as well as cutting travelling expenses to a minimum required. Therefore, these funds should be sufficient to allow Company operations until the General Meeting is held (expected date on or around early August 2023), whereby the Company is seeking shareholder approval for Mr Blumenthal's participation in the October 2022 Placement (A$200,000) and Mr Blumenthal and Associate's participation in the April 2023 Placement (A$300,000).

In addition, the Company has negotiated with its suppliers and sub-contractors for payment deferral arrangements. Moreover, the Company's directors have agreed to be paid part in cash and part in CDIs since June 2022 retroactively. The Company also intends to negotiate additional loans from Director Adam Blumenthal and other related parties of up to A$300,000 at an interest rate of 15% per annum. If the Company and the directors finalise these loans, full terms and conditions of the loans will be announced to ASX, and shareholder approval will be required.

- 8. If the answer to question 7 is "No", please explain what steps ROO has taken, or proposes to take, to warrant its continued listing on ASX under the requirements of Listing Rule 12.2.

N/A.

- 9. Do the directors of ROO consider that ROO is a going concern?

Yes.

- 10. If the answer to question 9 is "Yes", please explain the basis for this conclusion.

The Company has prepared a NOM to seek shareholder approval for Mr Blumenthal's participation in the October 2022 Placement ($200,000) and Mr Blumenthal and Associate's participation in the April 2023 Placement ($300,000) which is expected to bring a total of $500,000 to the Company in the near term which will provide sufficient working capital to repay the Company's outstanding liabilities as well as fund ongoing operations. In addition, the Company intends to fund its operations through sales orders as detailed in the response to question 7.

The Company has also received loans from directors historically where required, and is in the position to receive further loans when required in the lead up to any capital raising. The Company may also elect to sign a loan agreement for A$300,000 at its discretion if needed.

- 11. If the answer to question 7 is "No, on what basis does ROO consider its securities warrant continued listing on ASX under the requirements of Listing Rule 12.2.

N/A.

- 12. Please confirm that ROO is in compliance with Listing Rule 3.1 and that there is no information that should be given to ASX about its financial condition under that rule that has not already been released to the market.

The Company confirms that it is in compliance with Listing Rule 3.1 and that there is no information that should be given to ASX about its financial condition under that rule that has not already been released to the market.

- 13. Please confirm that ROO's responses to the questions above have been authorised and approved in accordance with its published continuous disclosure policy or otherwise by its board or an officer of ROO with delegated authority from the board to respond to ASX on disclosure matters.

ROO's responses to the questions above have been authorised and approved by its board.
