

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

New CFO – Gunther Burghardt

Bega Cheese (ASX: BGA) is pleased to announce the appointment of Gunther Burghardt as Chief Financial Officer who will commence with the Group on Monday 3 October 2022.

Gunther has 30 years' experience in senior finance and supply chain operational roles with multinational consumer goods companies including Proctor & Gamble, Reckitt Benckiser, Fosters, Kraft Foods and Treasury Wine Estates. More recently he was the CFO and CIO for ASX listed Blackmores. Gunther holds a BBA (Finance and Accounting) and held a four-year Fellowship at the University of Melbourne Business School as part of the Centre for Accounting and Industry Partnerships. Gunther is also a graduate member of Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Gunther's considerable global experience and commercial focus along with his commitment to leading and developing teams provides an important addition to our executive team as we consolidate and integrate recent acquisitions and progress our ongoing growth mandate.

As previously announced, Pete Findlay has been appointed Chief Operating Officer of the Group with responsibility for the branded business segment. I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge Pete for his significant contribution to Bega during the past three years in his role as CFO.
