SUBJECT/// Final milestone reached — begin countdown to completion!
TO/// All colleagues (All Co-workers (DG) All-Co-workers-DG@Amcor.com)
FROM/// Peter Konieczny Communications
DISTRIBUTION/// April 25, 2025

Team,

Today, we received antitrust approval from the European Commission, which marks the final regulatory milestone needed for our combination with Berry Global. This is very exciting news and means we are aiming to become one combined organization as of April 30!

Successfully completing all regulatory clearances in such a relatively short period is testament to both the great work of our team and to how complementary Amcor and Berry are. The future company will be in a great position to succeed – serving customers better, growing faster and making a positive impact in ways we never could before.

Although we will still be operating as two separate companies until the transaction closes, the beginning of our new journey is within reach.

Let's make it happen!

Peter Konieczny
CEO

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains certain statements that are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are generally identified with words like “believe,” “expect,” “target,” “project,” “may,” “could,” “would,” “approximately,” “possible,” “will,” “should,” “intend,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “commit,” “estimate,” “potential,” “ambitions,” “outlook,” or “continue,” the negative of these words, other terms of similar meaning, or the use of future dates. Such statements, including projections as to the anticipated benefits of the proposed Transaction (as defined herein), the impact of the proposed Transaction on Amcor’s and Berry Global Group Inc.’s (“Berry”) business and future financial and operating results and prospects, and the amount and timing of synergies from the proposed Transaction, are based on the current estimates, assumptions, projections and expectations of the management of Amcor and Berry and are qualified by the inherent risks and uncertainties surrounding future expectations generally. Actual results could differ materially from those currently anticipated due to a number of risks and uncertainties many of which are beyond Amcor’s and Berry’s control. Neither Amcor nor Berry nor any of their respective directors, executive officers, or advisors, provide any representation, assurance, or guarantee that the occurrence of the events expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements will actually occur or if any of them do occur, what impact they will have on the business, results of operations or financial condition of Amcor and Berry. Should any risks and uncertainties develop into actual events, these developments could have a material adverse effect on Amcor’s and Berry’s respective businesses, the proposed Transaction and the ability to successfully complete the proposed Transaction and realize its expected benefits. Risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ from expectations include, but are not limited to: occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the Agreement and Plan of Merger (“Merger Agreement”) in connection with the proposed merger (the “Transaction”) of Amcor and Berry; risk that the conditions to the completion of the proposed Transaction with Berry (including regulatory approvals) are not satisfied in a timely manner or at all; risks arising from the integration of the Amcor and Berry businesses; risk that the anticipated benefits of the proposed Transaction may not be realized when expected or at all; risk of unexpected costs or expenses resulting from the proposed Transaction; risk of litigation related to the proposed Transaction; risks related to the disruption of management’s time from ongoing business operations as a result of the proposed Transaction; risk that the proposed Transaction may have an adverse effect on Amcor’s and Berry’s respective ability to retain key personnel and customers; general economic, market and social developments and conditions; evolving legal, regulatory and tax regimes under which Amcor or Berry operates; potential business uncertainty, including changes to existing business relationships, during the pendency of the proposed Transaction that could affect Amcor’s and Berry’s respective financial performance; changes in consumer demand patterns and customer requirements in numerous industries; the loss of key customers, a reduction in their production requirements, or consolidation among key customers; significant competition in the industries and regions in which Amcor or Berry operates; an inability to expand Amcor’s and Berry’s respective current businesses effectively through either organic growth, including product innovation, investments, or acquisitions; challenging global economic conditions; impacts of operating internationally; price fluctuations or shortages in the availability of raw materials, energy, and other inputs which could adversely affect Amcor’s and Berry’s respective businesses; production, supply, and other commercial risks, including counterparty credit risks, which may be exacerbated in times of economic volatility; pandemics, epidemics, or other disease outbreaks; an inability to attract and retain Amcor’s and Berry’s respective global executive teams and Amcor’s and Berry’s respective skilled workforce and manage key transitions; labor disputes and an inability to renew collective bargaining agreements at acceptable terms; physical impacts of climate change; cybersecurity risks, which could disrupt Amcor’s and Berry’s respective operations or risk of loss of Amcor’s and Berry’s respective sensitive business information; failures or disruptions in Amcor’s and Berry’s respective information technology systems which could disrupt Amcor’s and Berry’s respective operations, compromise customer, employee, supplier, and other data; a significant increase in Amcor’s and Berry’s respective indebtedness or a downgrade in Amcor’s and Berry’s respective credit ratings could reduce Amcor’s and Berry’s respective operating flexibility and increase Amcor’s and Berry’s respective borrowing costs and negatively affect Amcor’s and Berry’s respective financial condition and results of operations; rising interest rates that increase Amcor’s and

Berry's respective borrowing costs on Amcor's and Berry's respective variable rate indebtedness and could have other negative impacts; foreign exchange rate risk; a significant write-down of goodwill and/or other intangible assets; a failure to maintain an effective system of internal control over financial reporting; an inability of Amcor's and Berry's respective insurance policies, including Amcor's and Berry's respective use of a captive insurance company, to provide adequate protection against all of the risks Amcor and Berry face; an inability to defend Amcor's or Berry's respective intellectual property rights or intellectual property infringement claims against Amcor or Berry; litigation, including product liability claims or litigation related to Environmental, Social, and Governance ("ESG"), matters or regulatory developments; increasing scrutiny and changing expectations from investors, customers, suppliers, and governments with respect to Amcor's and Berry's respective ESG practices and commitments resulting in additional costs or exposure to additional risks; changing ESG government regulations including climate-related rules; changing environmental, health, and safety laws; changes in tax laws or changes in Amcor's and Berry's respective geographic mix of earnings; and other risks and uncertainties are supplemented by those identified from time to time in Amcor's and Berry's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), including without limitation, those described under Part I, "Item 1A - Risk Factors" in Amcor's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2024 and Berry's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 28, 2024, each as updated by Amcor's or Berry's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. You can obtain copies of Amcor's and Berry's filings with the SEC for free at the SEC's website (www.sec.gov). Forward-looking statements included herein are made only as of the date hereof and Amcor and Berry do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statements, or any other information in this communication, as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, or to correct any inaccuracies or omissions in them which become apparent, except as expressly required by law. All forward-looking statements in this communication are qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously announced, on November 19, 2024, Amcor plc (“Amcor”), Aurora Spirit, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Amcor (“Merger Sub”), and Berry Global Group, Inc. (“Berry”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”). Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge (such merger, the “Merger”) with and into Berry, with Berry surviving as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Amcor.

The consummation of the Merger is conditioned on, among other things, the approval from the European Commission (the “EC”) under the EU Merger Regulation.

On April 25, 2025, the EC unconditionally approved the Merger. Amcor and Berry currently expect that the Merger will close on April 30, 2025, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain other closing conditions.

On April 25, 2025, Amcor and Berry issued a joint press release. A copy of the joint press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains certain statements that are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are generally identified with words like "believe," "expect," "target," "project," "may," "could," "would," "approximately," "possible," "will," "should," "intend," "plan," "anticipate," "commit," "estimate," "potential," "ambitions," "outlook," or "continue," the negative of these words, other terms of similar meaning, or the use of future dates. Such statements, including projections as to the anticipated benefits of the proposed Transaction (as defined herein), the impact of the proposed Transaction on Amcor's and Berry Global Group Inc.'s ("Berry") business and future financial and operating results and prospects, and the amount and timing of synergies from the proposed Transaction, are based on the current estimates, assumptions, projections and expectations of the management of Amcor and Berry and are qualified by the inherent risks and uncertainties surrounding future expectations generally. Actual results could differ materially from those currently anticipated due to a number of risks and uncertainties many of which are beyond Amcor's and Berry's control. Neither Amcor nor Berry nor any of their respective directors, executive officers, or advisors, provide any representation, assurance, or guarantee that the occurrence of the events expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements will actually occur or if any of them do occur, what impact they will have on the business, results of operations or financial condition of Amcor and Berry. Should any risks and uncertainties develop into actual events, these developments could have a material adverse effect on Amcor's and Berry's respective businesses, the proposed Transaction and the ability to successfully complete the proposed Transaction and realize its expected benefits. Risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ from expectations include, but are not limited to: occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the Agreement and Plan of Merger ("Merger Agreement") in connection with the proposed merger (the "Transaction") of Amcor and Berry; risk that the conditions to the completion of the proposed Transaction with Berry (including regulatory approvals) are not satisfied in a timely manner or at all; risks arising from the integration of the Amcor and Berry businesses; risk that the anticipated benefits of the proposed Transaction may not be realized when expected or at all; risk of unexpected costs or expenses resulting from the proposed Transaction; risk of litigation related to the proposed Transaction; risks related to the disruption of management's time from ongoing business operations as a result of the proposed Transaction; risk that the proposed Transaction may have an adverse effect on Amcor's and Berry's respective ability to retain key personnel and customers; general economic, market and social developments and conditions; evolving legal, regulatory and tax regimes under which Amcor or Berry operates; potential business uncertainty, including changes to existing business relationships, during the pendency of the proposed Transaction that could affect Amcor's and Berry's respective financial performance; changes in consumer demand patterns and customer requirements in numerous industries; the loss of key customers, a reduction in their production requirements, or consolidation among key customers; significant competition in the industries and regions in which Amcor or Berry operates; an inability to expand Amcor's and Berry's respective current businesses effectively through either organic growth, including product innovation, investments, or acquisitions; challenging global economic conditions; impacts of operating internationally; price fluctuations or shortages in the availability of raw materials, energy, and other inputs which could adversely affect Amcor's and Berry's respective businesses; production, supply, and other commercial risks, including counterparty credit risks, which may be exacerbated in times of economic volatility; pandemics, epidemics, or other disease outbreaks; an inability to attract and retain Amcor's and Berry's respective global executive teams and Amcor's and Berry's respective skilled workforce and manage key transitions; labor disputes and an inability to renew collective bargaining agreements at acceptable terms; physical impacts of climate change; cybersecurity risks, which could disrupt Amcor's and Berry's respective operations or risk of loss of Amcor's and Berry's respective sensitive business information; failures or disruptions in Amcor's and Berry's respective information technology systems which could disrupt Amcor's and Berry's respective operations, compromise customer, employee, supplier, and other data; a significant increase in Amcor's and Berry's respective indebtedness or a downgrade in Amcor's and Berry's respective credit ratings could reduce Amcor's and Berry's respective operating flexibility and increase Amcor's and Berry's respective borrowing costs and negatively affect Amcor's and Berry's respective financial condition and results of operations; rising interest rates that increase Amcor's and Berry's respective borrowing costs on Amcor's and Berry's respective variable rate indebtedness and could have other negative impacts; foreign exchange rate risk; a significant write-down of goodwill and/or other intangible assets; a failure to maintain an effective system of internal control over financial reporting; an inability of Amcor's and Berry's respective insurance policies, including Amcor's and Berry's respective use of a captive insurance company, to provide adequate protection against all of the risks Amcor and Berry face; an inability to defend Amcor's or Berry's respective intellectual property rights or intellectual property infringement claims against Amcor or Berry; litigation, including product liability claims or litigation related to Environmental, Social, and Governance ("ESG"), matters or regulatory developments; increasing scrutiny and changing expectations from investors, customers, suppliers, and governments with respect to Amcor's and Berry's respective ESG practices and commitments resulting in additional costs or exposure to additional risks; changing ESG government regulations including climate-related rules; changing environmental, health, and safety laws; changes in tax laws or changes in Amcor's and Berry's respective geographic mix of earnings; and other risks and uncertainties are supplemented by those identified from time to time in Amcor's and Berry's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), including without limitation, those described under Part I, "Item 1A - Risk Factors" in Amcor's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2024 and Berry's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 28, 2024, each as updated by Amcor's or Berry's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. You can obtain copies of Amcor's and Berry's filings with the SEC for free at the SEC's website (www.sec.gov). Forward-looking statements included herein are made only as of the date hereof and Amcor and Berry do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statements, or any other information in this communication, as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, or to correct any inaccuracies or omissions in them which become apparent, except as expressly required by law. All forward-looking statements in this communication are qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement.
