2. PURPOSE AND EFFECT OF THE OFFER

2.1 Purpose of Offer

By this Prospectus the Company offers:

- (a) 14,768,635 Placement Options to Placement Investors; and
- (b) 7,500,000 Broker Options to the Broker.

The Placement Investors are sophisticated, professional and other institutional investors who are exempt from the disclosure requirements under Chapter 6D of the Corporations Act. The Placement Investors together subscribed in 2 tranches for 29,537,273 Placement Shares at 10 cents per Share to raise $2,953,727 (see ASX announcements of 19 April and 23 April 2021). These Shares were issued on 23 April 2021 and 24 June 2021. As part of the placement of these Shares, the Company agreed to issue the Placement Options on the basis of 1 free Placement Option for every 2 Shares subscribed for.

The Broker provided lead manager services in respect of the Placement for a fee of 6% of moneys raised and the issue of 7,500,000 Broker Options under this Prospectus.

The Options are offered for nil issue price and therefore no funds will be raised by this Prospectus.

The purpose of the Offer is to issue each of the Placement Options to the Placement Investors and the Broker Options to the Broker with prospectus disclosure so as to remove any secondary sales restrictions on the sale of these Options including upon Shares issued in the event of the exercise of the Options.

The Corporations Act restricts the trading of securities that are issued without a prospectus or otherwise where section 708A of the Corporations Act is not complied with. The Placement Options and the Broker Options are not in a current class of quoted securities. The Company cannot currently utilise a section 708A provision to ensure there are no restrictions on the trading of these Options.

2.2 Effect of the Offer

The effect of the Offer will be to remove the secondary trading sale restrictions on the securities issued under this Prospectus.

The Offer will further:

- (a) increase the number of securities on issue by 14,768,635 Placement Options and 7,500,000 Broker Options; and
- (b) decrease the cash reserves of the Company by approximately $27,500, being the estimated costs of the Offer.

2.4 Effect on Financial Position

The issue of the securities under this Prospectus with no raising of funds will not have a material impact on the Company's financial position. For this reason a pro-forma statement of financial position of the Company showing the financial effect of the Offer has not been included in this Prospectus.

2.5 No material effect on Control

The issue of the securities under this Offer will have no material effect on control of the Company.

3. RISK FACTORS

3.1 Introduction

Applicants should be aware that an investment in the Company is highly speculative. The Company is a technology company which is seeking to commercialise scaleable technology to create fibres and fabrics with minimal environmental impact. The Company does not have a history of revenue generation.

The activities of the Company are subject to various risks that may impact on the future performance of the Company. The following is a non-exhaustive list of the risks that may have a material effect on the financial position and performance of the Company and the value of its securities.

The "Company and Industry Risks" below are some of the risks to the Company of a specific nature by reason of being a technology company using its Technologies to seek to commercially develop plant-free microbial nanocellulose. The "General Investment Risks" below are some of the risks to the Company of a general economic nature.

3.2 Company and Industry Risks

Future funding needs

The Company has yet to commercialise the Technologies and has not as yet generated any material revenue or any profits. The Company will depend on the availability of investor funds until the Company generates cash flows from successful commercialisation of the Technologies.

No assurance can be given that future funding for further development activities will be made available on acceptable terms (if at all). If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing as needed, it may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its expansion and development programs as the case may be. Further, it may impact on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Contractual relationship risk

The Company's success is reliant in part on effectively engaging in contractual relationships with third parties.

The material contractual relationships of the Company include a collaboration agreement with Grasim Industries (see below), 2 supply chain contracts (see ASX announcements of 10 January 2019 and 1 May 2019) and a cooperation agreement with Codi Group (see ASX announcement of 16 August 2019).

As announced on 30 January 2020, the Company has entered into a collaboration agreement with Grasim Industries, a global fibre maker based in India. By the agreement, the parties will work exclusively together for Grasim Industries to achieve pilot scale production of fibre product from microbial cellulose provided by the Company. The Company and Grasim Industries will jointly own any new intellectual property generated. If pilot scale production is achieved, the parties in good faith will seek to enter into an exclusive agreement to produce the fibre product on a commercial scale. The Company and Grasim Industries have filed a joint patent application for a high tenacity lyocell fibre made from microbial cellulose (see ASX announcement of 13 January 2021).

The relationship with Grasim Industries is currently governed by the collaboration agreement and the successful operation of the project is reliant upon an effective relationship with it.

Technology development risk

The Company has intellectual property rights to the Technologies. The Company has not licensed the Technologies or intellectual property or begun commercial production of any plant-free cellulose product or generated any revenue. The Technologies currently span research, development and pilot stages. Continued research and development is required to achieve successful commercial production. There is a risk with new technology that development will not progress as planned and may encounter delays.

A significant risk is whether the Company can develop the Technologies and move to commercial licensing and/or production. There cannot be any assurance that this will occur within the timeframes targeted or at all. This includes successful technology development and commercial development such as customer engagement and marketing. Developmental problems or delays may have an adverse impact on the Company's business model, operating results and financial position.

Commercialisation risk

There can be no assurance that the Company will successfully commercialise the Technologies, or if the technology is commercialised, that it will generate ongoing interest from the market.

The Company is seeking to commercially produce plant-free cellulose-based products and/or license the Technologies or related intellectual property. Successful commercialisation of plant-free microbial cellulose to date has been very limited and there can be no assurance of the commercialisation sought.

A specific risk for the Technologies that are successfully commercialised is the need to be commercially competitive in the global markets it targets as an alternative to plant-based cellulose. This risk to be commercially competitive may limit and restrict the global markets size and or applications particularly in the industrial segment.

Another specific risk for the Technologies that are successfully commercialised is the availability of reliable raw materials in adequate supply.

Intellectual property risk

The success of the Technologies will depend in part on the Company's ability to obtain patents (and therefore proprietary rights) without infringing the proprietary rights of others. The Company has filed various patent applications including a joint patent application with Grasim Industries. These applications do not give the Company any currently enforceable rights. The Company's ability to commercialise its Technologies successfully is partially dependent upon its rights to exploit the inventions and methods described in the current and any future patent applications.

There can be no assurance that the Company's patent applications will be granted. Third parties may object to the grant of the Company's patent applications on grounds which may include alleged infringement of their patents. The Company is aware of third party held patents covering intellectual property within its relevant technology development landscape but does not believe any of these patents will materially impact the Company's business plans and current technology development. However, the Company has not undertaken an exhaustive assessment of existing patents to determine any overlapping technology or potential infringement, as the costs of such would be prohibitive.

The strength of patents involves complex legal and scientific questions and can be uncertain. There can be no assurance that any patents in relation to the Technologies will afford the Company commercially significant protection of the Technologies or that competitors or other parties will not develop competing technologies that circumvents such patents or that the patents in any way support commercial viability and or competitiveness.

Licensing, supply or service contracts and customer engagement

To successfully commercialise the Technologies, the Company will look to sell plant-free cellulose-based products or licence its Technologies and/or intellectual property to customers to generate revenue and this will require customer engagement and the execution of relevant contracts. Given the Company's stage of development, it does not currently have any paying customers.

Reliance on key personnel

The Company's success largely depends on the core competencies of the Directors and management, as well as other technical personnel including contractors (R&D laboratories) and the ability of the Company to retain these key executives. The Company's continued development and commercialisation will be dependent on the Board and senior executives. The loss of services on any of the Company's key personnel may have an adverse impact on the Company's performance in this early stage of development.

Covid-19 pandemic risk

The Covid-19 pandemic has significantly adversely affected many aspects of the global economy and impacted the ability of businesses and governments to operate including in Australia.

Various governments (including the Australian government) have imposed restrictions (including quarantines) on the movement of people and goods as a measure to seek to slow and contain the spread of the Covid-19 virus.

The Company's key commercialisation focus is on progressing its collaboration with Grasim Industries and its Birla Cellulose business unit in India. To date, the Company has been able to advance this collaboration by exchanging materials and technical information including undertaking a first shipment of microbial cellulose to Grasim Industries. However, the spread of the Covid-19 virus in India could delay the movement of goods and people and the ability of Grasim Industries to meet expected timelines.

The Company's 2 current supply chain alternatives for purchase of microbial cellulose are located in Indonesia and China. Again, the spread of the Covid-19 virus and any consequent restriction on the movement of goods and people, may delay the development of the Company's Technologies.

Investment in filtration technology company

The Company has made a $200,000 strategic investment to acquire a 20% interest in CelluAir Pty Ltd, an Australian company developing an advanced filtration system based on nanocellulose (see ASX announcement of 30 September 2020). The advanced filtration system has yet to be scaled-up and commercialised. This investment is subject to development and commercialisation risk and a relationship risk as the Company has a minority 20% interest.

Legal Proceedings

Legal proceedings may arise from time to time in the course of the business of the Company including enforcing or defending its intellectual property rights against infringement and unauthorised use by competitors.

As at the date of this Prospectus, there are no legal proceedings affecting the Company and the Directors are not aware of any legal proceedings pending or threatened against or affecting the Company.

Compliance risk

To successfully commercialise the Technologies, the Company will need to comply with various government or regulatory standards in Australia and overseas. A failure to comply with those standards may limit the Company's ability to develop and commercialise the Technologies.

Competition

The industry in which the Company will be involved is subject to domestic and global competition. While the Company will undertake all reasonable due diligence in its business decisions and operations, the Company will have no influence or control over the activities or actions of its competitors, whose activities or actions may, positively or negatively, affect the operating and financial performance of the Company's business.

The cellulose production industry is a competitive sector. There are also other competitors who may be working on developing other environmentally sustainable processes for textile production.

The development of a new or superior technology by a competitor could affect the Company's ability to commercialise its Technologies. There is a risk that existing competitors or new entrants to the market may develop superior or more effective fibres which could have an adverse effect on the Company's business and financial position. Competing plant-based and recycling technologies may adversely impact the commercial competitiveness of the Technologies across competing global market segments.

Management of growth

There is a risk that management of the Company will not be able to implement the Company's growth strategy. The capacity of the management to properly implement and manage the strategic direction of the Company may affect the Company's financial performance.

The Company has incurred losses since it was formed. The Company needs to invest in the commercial development of its Technologies and the Directors anticipate making further losses in the foreseeable future until the Company is able to effectively commercialise and generate revenue from its Technologies. As a consequence, there can be no certainty that the Company will achieve or sustain profitability or achieve or sustain positive cash flow from its operating activities.

Insurance

The Company may maintain insurance within ranges of coverage that it believes to be consistent with industry practice and having regard to the nature of activities being conducted. However, it is not always possible to insure against all risks associated with activities in development of technology. The Company may decide not to take out insurance against certain risks as a result of high premiums or for other reasons. Should liabilities arise on uninsured risks, the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations and the market price of the Shares may be materially adversely affected.

3.3 General Investment Risks

Securities investments and share market conditions

There are risks associated with any securities investment. The trading prices of securities trade fluctuate in response to a number of factors.

Furthermore, the stock market, and in particular the market for technology commercialisation companies may experience extreme price and volume fluctuations that may be unrelated or disproportionate to the operating performance of such companies. These factors may materially adversely affect the market price of the securities of the Company regardless of the Company's operational performance. Neither the Company nor the Directors warrant the future performance of the Company, or any return of an investment in the Company.

Economic risk

Changes in both Australia and world economic conditions may adversely affect the financial performance of the Company. Factors such as inflation, currency fluctuations, interest rates, industrial disruption and economic growth may impact on future operations and earnings.

Legislative

Changes in relevant taxes, legal and administration regimes, accounting practice and government policies may adversely affect the financial performance of the Company.

5. RIGHTS ATTACHING TO SECURITIES

5.1 Terms of Placement Options and Broker Options to be issued under this Prospectus

The terms of the issue of each of the Options are:

- (a) Each Option entitles the holder to one Share in the capital of the Company.
- (b) The Options may be exercised at any time prior to 5:00pm WST on the date 3 years from the date of issue of the Options (Expiry Date).
- (c) The exercise price of the Options is 15 cents each.
- (d) Application will be made for the Options to be quoted on ASX and the Options will be freely tradeable under Australian law.
- (e) The Company will provide to each Option holder a notice that is to be completed when exercising the Options (Notice of Exercise). Options may be exercised by the Option holder in whole or in part by completing the Notice of Exercise and forwarding the same to the Secretary of the Company to be received prior to the Expiry Date. The Notice of Exercise must, among other things, state the number of Options exercised, the consequent number of Shares to be issued and the identity of the proposed allottee. The Notice of Exercise by an Option holder must be accompanied by payment in full for the relevant number of Shares being subscribed (Exercise Monies), being an amount of the exercise price per Share. The Options held by each Option holder may be exercised in whole or in part, and if exercised in part, multiples of 10,000 must be exercised on each occasion. Where less than 10,000 Options are held, all Options must be exercised together.
- (f) Within 5 Business Days of receipt of a valid Notice of Exercise accompanied by the relevant Exercise Monies, the Company will allot the number of Shares required under these terms and conditions in respect of the number of Options specified in the Notice of Exercise.

- (h) There are no participating rights or entitlements inherent in the Options and the holders will not be entitled to participate in new issues or pro-rata issues of capital to Shareholders during the term of the Options. Thereby, the Option holder has no rights to a change in the exercise price of the Option or a change to the number of underlying securities over which the Option can be exercised (except for a bonus issue). The Company will ensure, for the purposes of determining entitlements to any issue, that Option holder will be notified of a proposed issue after the issue is announced. This will give Option holders the opportunity to exercise their Options prior to the date for determining entitlements to participate in such issues.
- (i) If there is a bonus issue (Bonus Issue) to Shareholders, the number of Shares over which an Option is exercisable will be increased by the number of Shares which the holder would have received if the Option had been exercised before the record date for the Bonus Issue (Bonus Shares). The Bonus Shares must be paid up by the Company out of profits or reserves (as the case may be) in the same manner as was applied in the Bonus Issue, and upon issue will rank equally in all respects with the other Shares on issue as at the date of issue of the Bonus Shares.

- (j) In the event of any reconstruction (including consolidation, subdivision, reduction or return) of the issued capital of the Company, all rights of the Option holder shall be reconstructed (as appropriate) in accordance with the Listing Rules.

5.2 Rights attaching to Shares

Full details of the rights and liabilities attaching to Shares are:

- (a) detailed in the Constitution; and
- (b) in certain circumstances, regulated by the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules and the general law.

The following is a summary of the more significant rights attaching to Shares. This summary is not exhaustive and does not constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of Shareholders. To obtain such a statement, persons should seek independent legal advice.

Voting Rights

Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, at a general meeting of members every member has one vote on a show of hands and one vote per share on a poll. Voting may be in person or by proxy, attorney or representative.

Dividends

There is no entitlement to a dividend other than that determined by Directors from time to time. The Shares will rank equally with all other issued Shares in the capital of the Company for the purposes of participation in any dividend paid out of the profits of the Company. The Directors are not anticipating paying dividends at this stage of the Company's development.

Future issues of securities

Subject to the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, the Directors may issue, grant Options over or otherwise dispose of, unissued Shares in the Company at the times and on the terms that the Directors think proper and a share may be issued with preferential or special rights.

Transfer of Shares

Subject to the Constitution of the Company, the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules and any other applicable law of Australia, shares are freely transferable.

Meetings and Notices

Each shareholder is entitled to receive notice of, and to attend, general meetings for the Company and to receive all notices, accounts and other documents required to be sent to shareholders under the Constitution, the Corporations Act or the Listing Rules.

Shareholders may requisition meetings in accordance with the Corporations Act.

Election of Directors

There must be a minimum of 3 Directors. At each general meeting, one-third of Directors (rounded down to the nearest whole number) shall retire from office. Additionally, the Listing Rules provide that a Director must retire from office no later than the longer of the third annual general meeting of the Company or 3 years following that Director's last election or appointment. These retirement rules do not apply to certain appointments including the managing director. Directors appointed by the Board as additional Directors hold office until the next following annual general meeting and are then eligible for re-election.

Alteration to the Constitution

The Constitution can only be amended by a special resolution passed by at least three quarters of shareholders present and voting at the general meeting. At least 28 days written notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution must be given.

Listing Rules

Despite anything in the Constitution, if the Listing Rules prohibit an act being done, the act must not be done. Nothing in the Constitution prevents an act being done that the Listing Rules require to be done. If the Listing Rules require an act to be done or not to be done, authority is given for that act to be done or not to be done (as the case may be). If the Listing Rules require the Constitution to contain a provision and it does not contain such a provision, the Constitution is deemed to contain that provision. If the Listing Rules require the Constitution not to contain a provision and it contains such a provision, the Constitution is deemed not to contain that provision. If a provision of the Constitution is inconsistent with the Listing Rules, the Constitution is deemed not to contain that provision to the extent of the inconsistency.

- (i) the formation or promotion of the Company; or
- (ii) any property acquired or proposed to be acquired by the Company in connection with its formation or promotion of the Company or the Offer; or

(c) Remuneration of Directors

Two changes have been implemented affecting the remuneration of Directors. The first change is the Directors have resolved to not utilise shareholder approval obtained at the 2020 annual general meeting so as to be able to be issued with VWAP Shares for accrued or foregone cash remuneration. Subject to any future Shareholder approval, remuneration will be cash based. This return to the previous remuneration structure reflects stabilised global financial markets and avoiding dilution to the capital structure. The second change is to increase the cash remuneration of Directors in response to an increased commitment in view of the resignation of the managing director in January 2021.

The revised remuneration of the Directors is set out below.

Dr Wayne Best is paid $225,000 per annum cash remuneration plus statutory superannuation (of which $60,000 for the 12 month period to 30 June 2021 was met by way of the issue of Performance Rights) as Executive Chairman. In the two years prior to the date of this Prospectus, Dr Best has received a total cash remuneration of $357,665 (including statutory superannuation).
