December Operational Update

“Virtual Mobile Communications as a Service” pioneer Norwood Systems Ltd (“Norwood” or the “Company”) (ASX: NOR) is pleased to confirm that Norwood’s business with several parties including Spark and Tourism WA and consumer receipts received via the App Store have generated operational cash receipts for the Company for December to date of so far in excess of A$170,000. The majority of this revenue is related to the previous announced Spark NZ contract (refer ASX announcement 7 December).

Norwood’s CEO and Founder, Paul Ostergaard, said:

“It is extremely pleasing to see the Norwood team recently engaging productively with a number of customers and we look forward to continue working with them all to deliver successful commissioning of the various contracted services over the coming months.

“It is also great to see the Company closing out the half year on a very positive note regarding cash flow generation. I’d personally like to thank all our customers, shareholders and employees for their support through the year and we are looking forward to the coming quarter with the most positive expectations.”

The Company wishes all a safe and peaceful holiday period!
