ROCKWELL OLIVIER GROWTH CONTINUES

ILH Group Limited (ASX: IAW) advises that its wholly owned subsidiary Rockwell Olivier has achieved further growth milestones with continued expansion of the Company's taxation, financial services and corporate and commercial teams both domestically and internationally.

Rockwell Olivier is the legal services arm of parent company ILH Group Limited.

Legal Taxation Services

With increasing demand for legal taxation services, two Principals have been added to the taxation practice, Morris Maroon in Sydney and Damien O'Connor in Melbourne.

Financial Services

Cristean Yazbeck has been appointed as Head of Financial Services in the Sydney office to service the growing demand in the financial services sector. He brings with him a wealth of experience in dealing with financial service providers particularly in the areas of FOFA, AFS and RSE licencing and superannuation (including corporate superannuation and defined benefit schemes).

Corporate and Commercial

The corporate and commercial team has expanded the international service offering with the opening of an office in Fiji – the first international law firm to do so. The official opening of the Fiji office will take place on 30 June with special guest, the Fijian Attorney-General, His Hon. Aiyaz Sayed-Khaiyum.

Further, John Ridgway, Managing Principal (International) has been appointed to the Executive Committee of Integrated Advisory Group International (IAG). As the principal IAG representative in the Asia Pacific region, this is expected to support the continued growth of the Rockwell Olivier international business in the region.
