CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER ANNOUNCEMENT

Leading global mining-tech company, Imdex Limited (IMDEX or the Company), today announces its Chief Financial Officer (CFO), Paul Evans, will retire from this role towards the end of calendar year 2024.

The Board would like to express its sincere gratitude to Mr Evans for his valuable contribution to the Company since he commenced in 2006. He has helped guide IMDEX through both variable market conditions and its organic and strategic growth periods to become the leading global mining-tech company it is today.

Plans are underway to identify a successor. Mr Evans will support the successful candidate to ensure a smooth transition.

Commenting on Mr Evans' decision to transition to retirement, Managing Director Paul House said:

"I would like to thank Paul for his exceptional professionalism, dedication to our company and support for his fellow Executive and team members. It has been a true pleasure working alongside him. I look forward to continuing our engagement and wish him all the best for his future endeavours."
