Wangle Engages The Agenda Group (NSW) to Manage Media relations

Wangle Technologies Limited (Wangle or the Company) (ASX:WGL) is pleased to announce it has engaged specialist agency The Agenda Group (NSW) to manage media and policy support for its parental control platform, Wangle Family Insites (WFI).

With Wangle now focusing on the commercialisation of WFI, the engagement of the specialist Sydney-based agency will enable the Company to develop stronger media relationships with mainstream media outlets to support WFI growth, particularly on Australia's east coast.

Media planning, strategy and execution is already underway, with Wangle Family Insites featuring on the Seven Network's Today Tonight program last night to approximately 900,000 viewers. The segment can be viewed on the Wangle Family Insites' Facebook page.

Wangle Technologies CEO Mr Sean Smith said:

"Media coverage of the issues surrounding safe use of the internet by children is growing each week and Wangle Family Insites is well placed to be instrumental in helping parents address the challenges raised. Our expertise in this area is being called upon more frequently by the press and requires greater media management expertise to fully realise the media potential for company brand-building and growth. The team at The Agenda Group have extensive experience from within mainstream media and we are excited about working with them to further develop our media profile."

WFI is available with a free 30 day trial via the Apple and Android App stores on a monthly or annual family subscription, and will initially target Australia's 6 million families before a planned international expansion.
