1.6 The Corporations Act 2001 applies in relation to this document as if it was an instrument made under the Corporations Act 2001 as in force on the day when this document became the constitution of the Company.

2. Issue of shares

Power to issue shares

- 2.1 The shares in the Company may be issued only by the Board. The Board may issue or otherwise dispose of shares to those persons, including Members, Directors or employees of the Company, determined by the Board.

Special Rights

- 2.2 Shares may be issued with those preferred, deferred or other special rights or with those restrictions, whether with regard to dividends, voting, return of capital or otherwise as the Board determines.

Effect of allotment on class rights

- 2.3 The rights conferred on the holders of the shares of a class allotted with preferred rights are not to be treated as varied by the allotment of further shares by the Company ranking equally with them unless the terms of allotment of the earlier allotted shares expressly provide otherwise.

Trusts over shares

- 2.4 Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the Company as holding a share on trust.
- 2.5 Except as provided by this document or the law, the Company may recognise only an absolute right to the entirety of a share in the registered holder and, regardless of it having notice of any other interest or right, the Company is not bound by, or compelled in any way to recognise, any equitable, contingent, future, partial or other right or interest in a share or unit of a share.

Entitlement to certificates

- 2.6 The Board may determine that all the shares of a class of shares in the capital of the Company are to be allotted on the terms that they may be held only as uncertificated holdings under the SCH business rules. A Member holding shares of that class is not entitled to require the Company to issue or deliver certificates as evidence of title to the shares. The Board may at any time revoke a determination under this clause.

- 2.7 The Board may permit a Member's holding of shares to be held as an uncertificated holding under the SCH business rules and they must do so if the Listing Rules or the SCH business rules require that shares are to be held as uncertificated holdings.
- 2.8 Every Member whose shares are not held as an uncertificated holding of shares is entitled without payment to receive a certificate in respect of shares allotted, as required by the Corporations Act 2001.
- 2.9 The Board may cancel without replacing a certificate for shares held by a Member whose shares are to be held as an uncertificated holding.

Issue of certificates to joint holders

- 2.10 The Company is not bound to issue more than one certificate in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons. Delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders is sufficient delivery to all such holders.

Rights and obligations of joint holders

- 2.11 The Board may from time to time determine the maximum number of joint holders, being not more than 3, whose names may be recorded in the Register. Until a determination is made, the maximum number is 3. The Company may record only the names of the first persons within the maximum number from the application for shares, transfer document or notice of death and all other names may be disregarded by the Company.
- 2.12 If several persons are jointly entitled to a share all of the following conditions apply in relation to that joint holding:
 - 2.12.1 In the absence of an express direction from those persons to the contrary, the Company may enter the names of those persons as Members in the Register in the order in which their names appear on the application for shares or the instrument of transfer or the notice of death or bankruptcy given to the Company to establish those persons' entitlement to the share.
 - 2.12.2 It is a sufficient discharge of any of the Company's obligations to those persons if the Company discharges that obligation in relation to the first named holder of the share in the Register.
 - 2.12.3 Any one of those persons may give effectual receipts for any dividend or return of capital payable to those persons.
 - 2.12.4 Those persons are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls, interest and other amounts in respect of the share.

 - 2.13.2 the total number of Shares that are, or are covered by, the ESS Interests that have been issued, or could have been issued, under offers made under the Company's employee share scheme at any time during the 3 year period ending on the day the offer is made, does not exceed 10% of the number of Shares actually on issue as at the start of the day the offer is made.

3. Variation of class rights

Form of Consent

- 3.1 If at any time there are different classes of shares on issue, the rights attached to a class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied in either of the following ways:
- 3.1.1 With the consent in writing of the holders of 75% of the shares of that class.
- 3.1.2 With the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class.

Separate general meeting

- 3.2 The provisions of this document relating to general meetings, with all necessary changes required by the context of this clause 3, apply to every separate general meeting except that:
- 3.2.1 Two Members represented in any manner permitted at general meetings who together hold one-third of the issued shares of the class, or the only Member holding shares in the class, is a quorum.
- 3.2.2 Any person qualified to be counted in a quorum may demand a poll.

- 5.1.2 Where the share is registered in the name of one Member only, for all money payable to the Company by the Member or, in the case of a deceased Member, by the deceased Member's estate.
- 5.2 The lien extends to reasonable interest and expenses incurred because the amount has not been paid.
- 5.3 The Board may exclude at any time by resolution a share either wholly or In part from the lien created under this document.

Power of sale

- 5.4 The Company may sell, in any manner which the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien.
- 5.5 A share on which the Company has a lien must not be sold unless both of the following are satisfied:
 - 5.5.1 A sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable.
 - 5.5.2 A period of 14 days has elapsed after the Company has given to the Member in whose name the share is registered or the person entitled thereto by reason of the Member's death or bankruptcy a notice in writing of the Company's intention to sell the share.
- 5.6 The notice must:
 - 5.6.1 State the amount, and demand payment, of the part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.

- 5.7 The Company may do all things necessary to give effect to the sale of those shares on which the Company has a lien, including authorise a Director, Secretary or other person to execute a transfer of the shares sold in favour of the purchaser of the shares.
- 5.8 The Company must register the purchaser of any shares sold as the holder of the shares. The purchaser is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money. The title of the purchaser to the shares is not affected by an irregularity or invalidity in connection with the sale.

Application of proceeds of sale

- 5.9 The proceeds of the sale must be received by the Company and the money remaining after deducting the expenses of sale must be applied in payment of that part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable. The residue, if any, must (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

- 6.4 A call or an instalment of a call may not be made payable at a date less than one month after the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call or instalment.
- 6.5 The Board may at any time revoke or postpone a call.

Time of call

- 6.6 A call is to be treated as made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call is passed.

Notice of calls

- 6.7 The Company must comply with the Listing Rules in relation to the dispatch and content of notices to Members on whom a call is made.

- 6.8 A Member on whom a call is made in accordance with this document must pay to the Company the amount called on his shares at the time or times and place specified.

Interest on unpaid calls

- 6.9 If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment, the person from whom the sum is due must pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment of the sum called to the time of actual payment at a rate not exceeding 20% per annum determined by the Board. The Board may waive payment of interest, either wholly or in part, on sums called but unpaid.

Sums payable on allotment or at a fixed date

- 6.10 Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at a fixed date is for the purposes of this document treated as a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the sum becomes payable.
- 6.11 In case of non-payment of a sum payable on allotment or at a fixed date, all the relevant provisions of this document as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture, or otherwise apply as if the sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Advances of uncalled amounts

- 6.12 The Board may accept all or part of the money uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by a Member which the Member is willing to advance to the Company.
- 6.13 The Board may authorise the payment of interest on the whole or a part of an advance of any uncalled amount due on shares until the date the amount would have been payable but for the advance at a rate not exceeding 10% per annum or a rate fixed from time to time by the Company in general meeting.

- 7.3 If the share the subject of a resolution of forfeiture is entered on the CHESSE Subregister, the Company may take all necessary steps to move the share to a subregister administered by the Company. The forfeiture of the share is effective at the time the share is entered in that subregister.

 - 8.35.1 The authority of the Company to sell that Unmarketable Holding terminates.
 - 8.35.2 After the end of the takeover period a further notice under this clause may be given to all Members who then hold Unmarketable Holdings.

9. Transmission of shares

Transmittee right to register or transfer

- 9.1 Subject to the Bankruptcy Act 1966 and the Corporations Act 2001, if a person entitled to a share because of a Transmission Event gives the Board the information that they reasonably require to establish the person's entitlement to be registered as the holder of any shares, that person may do either of the following:
 - 9.1.1 Elect to be registered as a Member in respect of those shares by giving a signed notice in writing to the Company, and on receiving this notice the Company must register the person as the holder of those shares.
 - 9.1.2 Transfer those shares to another person. That transfer is subject to the provisions of this document relating to the transfer of shares.

Other transmittee rights and obligations

- 9.2 A person who has given to the Board the information referred to in clause 9.1 in respect of a share is entitled to the same rights to which that person would be entitled if registered as the holder of that share.
- 9.3 A person registered as a Member as a result of a Transmission Event must indemnify the Company and the Board to the extent of any loss or damage suffered by the Company or the Board as a result of that registration.
- 9.4 Deceased members
- 9.5 If a Member (not being one of several joint registered holders) dies, the Company must recognise only the legal personal representative of that Member as having any title or interest in a share registered in the name of that Member or any benefits accruing in respect of that share.

- 9.6 If a Member (being one of several joint registered holders) dies, the Company must recognise only the surviving joint registered holders of that share as having any title or interest in, or any benefits accruing in respect of, that share.
- 9.7 Nothing in this document releases the estate of a deceased joint holder from a liability in respect of a share which had been jointly held by the deceased Member with other persons.
- 9.8 Where 2 or more persons are jointly entitled to any share as a consequence of the death of the registered holder of that share, they are taken to be joint holders of that share.

10. General meetings

Voting qualification time

- 10.1 Except as stated below, in this document Voting Qualification Time in relation to a general meeting means one of the following:
- 10.1.1 If a determination is made by the convenor of a meeting under clause 10.2, the time specified in that determination.
- 10.1.2 If a determination is not made by the convenor of the meeting. 48 hours before the time for commencement of the meeting or a lesser time fixed in relation to general meetings of the Company for the purposes of this clause by determination of the Board.
- 10.2 For the purpose of determining voting entitlements at a general meeting, the convenor of a meeting may determine that all the issued voting shares in the Company at a specified time before the meeting are to be regarded as held at the time of the meeting by the persons who held them at the specified time.
- 10.3 A determination of a specified time before the meeting must be made before notice of the meeting is given.
- 10.4 The specified time must be not more than 48 hours before the meeting.
- 10.5 Before the ordinary shares of the Company are CHESSE Approved Securities:
- 10.5.1 Clauses 10.1 to 10.4 do not operate.
- 10.5.2 The Voting Qualification Time in relation to a general meeting is the time of commencement of the general meeting.

Convening of meetings by Board

- 10.6 The Board may convene a general meeting at any time.

Convening of meetings by members

- 10.7 The Board must call and arrange to hold a general meeting if required to do so under the Corporations Act 2001.

Directors' attendance at general meetings

- 10.8 A Director is entitled to receive notice of and to attend all general meetings and all general meetings of the holders of any class of shares in the capital of the Company and is entitled to speak at those meetings.

Notice of general meeting

- 10.9 A notice of a general meeting may be given by any form of communication permitted by the Corporations Act 2001. The notice must specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and if the meeting is to be held in 2 or more places, or using virtual meeting technology only, the technology that will be used to facilitate the meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted and any other matters as are required by the Corporations Act 2001.

10.10 The accidental omission to give notice of a general meeting to, or the non receipt of a notice by, a person entitled to receive notice does not invalidate a resolution passed at the general meeting.

10.11 The Company may hold a meeting of Members at a time determined by the Directors:

10.11.1 at one or more physical venues;

10.11.2 one or more physical venues and using virtual meeting technology; and

10.11.3 using virtual meeting technology only, provided that, in each case, Members as a whole are given a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting, and otherwise in the manner determined by the Directors. If the Directors elect to use virtual meeting technology for a general meeting of the Company, the Directors will determine the type of virtual meeting technology to be used, which may include any combination of telephone, video conferencing, messaging, smartphone application or any other audio and/or visual device which permits instantaneous communication.

Cancellation of general meetings

10.12 The Board may cancel a general meeting, other than a general meeting which they are required to convene and hold under the Corporations Act 2001.

10.13 A meeting may only be cancelled in accordance with clause 10.11 if notice of the cancellation is given to all persons entitled to receive notice of the meeting at least 2 business days prior to the time of the meeting as specified in notice of meeting.

Quorum at general meetings

10.14 Business may not be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Except as otherwise set out in this document, 2 Members present in person or by representative is a quorum.

10.15 If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting or a longer period allowed by the chairperson:

10.15.1 If the meeting was convened by or on the requisition of Members, it must be dissolved.

10.15.2 Otherwise, it must stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to another day and at another time and place determined by the Board.

10.16 If a meeting has been adjourned to another time and place determined by the Board, not less than 7 days notice of the adjourned meeting must be given in the same manner as in the case of the original meeting.

Quorum at adjourned general meetings

10.17 If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting must be dissolved.

Appointment of chairperson

10.18 If the Board have elected one of their number as chairperson of their meetings, that person is entitled to preside as chairperson at every general meeting.

10.19 The Directors present at a general meeting must elect one of their number to chair the meeting in either of the following circumstances:

10.19.1 A Director has not been elected as the chairperson of Board meetings.

10.19.2 The chairperson is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or he is unwilling to act.

10.20 The Members present at a general meeting must elect one of their number to chair the meeting in either of the following circumstances:

10.20.1 There are no Directors present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting.

10.20.2 All Directors present decline to take the chair.

Chairperson's powers

10.21 Subject to the terms of this document dealing with adjournment of meetings, the ruling of the chairperson on all matters relating to the order of business, procedure and conduct of the general meeting is final and no motion of dissent from a ruling of the chairperson may be accepted.

Adjournment of meetings

10.22 The chairperson may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and must if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting to another time and to another place.

10.23 The only business that may be transacted at any adjourned meeting is the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

10.24 When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of an original meeting.

10.25 Except when a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, it is not necessary to give a notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

Voting on show of hands

10.26 At a general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded before that vote is taken or before the result is declared or immediately after the result is declared.

10.27 If a poll is not duly demanded, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

Demand for a poll

10.28 A poll may be demanded by one of the following:

10.28.1 The chairperson,

10.28.2 At least 5 Members entitled to vote on the resolution.

10.28.3 Any Member or Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll.

10.29 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

10.30 The demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of business other than the question on which a poll is demanded.

- 10.31 If a poll is duly demanded, it must be taken in the manner and, except as to the election of a chairperson or on a question of adjournment, either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the chairperson directs. The result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded,
- 10.32 A poll demanded on the election of a chairperson or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

Voting rights of Members

- 10.33 Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to a class or classes of shares on a show of hands every person present who was a Member at the Voting Qualification Time or who represents a corporation who was a Member at that time has one vote.
- 10.34 Subject to the rights or restrictions attached to a class or classes of shares, on a poll every person present who was a Member at the Voting Qualification Time and who is present in person or by proxy, attorney or representative has the following voting rights:
- 10.34.1 One vote for each fully paid share that person held at that time.
- 10.34.2 For each partly paid share that person held, a fraction of one vote equal to the fraction:

$$\frac{AP}{NV}$$

where:

AP is the amount paid on the partly paid share, excluding amounts credited or paid in advance of a call.

NV is the total amount paid or payable (excluding amounts credited) on that share.

- 10.35 A Member is not entitled to cast a vote in respect of shares which are classified under the Listing Rules or by ASX as restricted securities while there subsists a breach of an escrow agreement entered into by the Company in respect of the shares.

Joint shareholders' vote

- 10.36 In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, must be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders and, for this purpose, seniority must be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register.

Voting rights where calls unpaid

- 10.37 A Member is not entitled to vote or to be counted in a quorum at a general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by the Member in respect of shares have been paid.

Vote of the Chairperson at general meetings

- 10.38 In a case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairperson of a general meeting has a casting vote in addition to their deliberative vote (if any) as a Member.

Objections to voter qualification

- 10.39 No objection may be raised to the qualification of a voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered. An objection to the qualification of a voter must be referred to the chairperson, whose decision is final. A vote not disallowed according to an objection as provided in this document is valid for all purposes. A vote which the Listing Rules require the Company to disregard is not valid.

11. Proxies and representatives

Proxies and representatives of Members

- 11.1 At meetings of Members or classes of Members each Member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy or by attorney. A Member which is a corporation may appoint an individual as a representative. Except as expressly provided by the terms of their appointment, a person attending as a proxy, as the attorney of a Member, or as representing a corporation which is a Member has all the powers of a Member, except where expressly stated to the contrary in this document.

Appointment of proxies

- 11.2 A Member may appoint either 1 or 2 persons as their proxy to attend and vote instead of the Member. When a Member appoints 2 proxies the appointment must specify the proportion of the Member's voting rights which each proxy is entitled to represent. A proxy need not be a Member. A document appointing a proxy must be in writing, signed by the appointor or the attorney of the appointor duly authorised in writing and be in any form permitted by the Corporations Act 2001.
- 11.3 If the notice of the general meeting for which a proxy is appointed states that proxies may be sent to a specified facsimile number for or on behalf of the Company, a document generated from the image of a document appointing a proxy that is transmitted to that facsimile number is treated as being all of the following:
- 11.3.1 In writing.
 - 11.3.2 Signed if bearing a facsimile of a signature.
 - 11.3.3 Under seal if bearing a facsimile of a seal.
 - 11.3.4 Deposited with the Company in accordance with this document.
- 11.4 If the document appointing a proxy is sent by facsimile transmission, any power of attorney or other authority under which the appointment is signed, or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority, will be taken to be deposited with the Company in accordance with this document if it is transmitted by facsimile with the facsimile transmission of the document appointing the proxy.

Form of proxy

- 11.5 There is no required form for a proxy. The Board may from time to time approve a form for use at a particular meeting.

Authority of proxies

- 11.6 A document appointing a proxy may specify the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where the document so provides, the proxy is not entitled to vote on the resolution except as specified in the document.
- 11.7 A proxy may vote on a show of hands but a person holding a proxy for more than one Member has only one vote.
- 11.8 A document appointing a proxy confers authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.
- 11.9 Except as expressly provided by the document appointing a proxy, an appointment of a proxy confers authority to agree to a meeting being convened by shorter notice than is required by the Corporations Act 2001 or by this document.

Verification of proxies

- 11.10 Before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which a proxy proposes to vote, both of the following documents must be deposited with the Company as applicable:
- 11.10.1 The document appointing the proxy.

- 11.10.2 The power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which the document is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority.
- 11.11 Those documents must be received at the Office, at a fax number at the Office or at another place, fax number or electronic address specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting not less than 48 hours before one of the following times:
- 11.11.1 The time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting.
- 11.11.2 In the case of a poll, the time appointed for the taking of the poll.

Validity of proxies

- 11.12 A proxy document is invalid if it is not deposited or produced prior to a meeting or a vote being taken as required by this document.

Revocation of appointment of proxy

- 11.13 A vote given in accordance with the terms of a proxy document or power of attorney is valid despite the occurrence of any one or more of the following events if no intimation in writing of any of those events has been received by the Company at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the document is used:
- 11.13.1 The previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal.
- 11.13.2 The revocation of the instrument or of the authority under which the instrument was executed.
- 11.13.3 The transfer of the share in respect of which the instrument or power is given.

12. Appointment and retirement of directors

- 12.2 The Company may, by resolution, increase or reduce the number of Directors and may also determine in what rotation the increased or reduced number is to go out of office. Alternate Directors are not to be treated as Directors for the purpose of determining the minimum or maximum number of Directors holding office.

Nomination of Directors

- 12.3 A person other than a Director who retires by rotation or who ceases to be a Director in accordance with this clause 12 is not eligible to be appointed as a Director at a general meeting unless notice of nomination of the person to be a Director is given to the Company in accordance with this clause 12.

- 12.7 A Director who retires by rotation at a general meeting or who ceases to be a Director at a general meeting in accordance with this clause 12 is regarded as offering to be re-elected at that general meeting unless before the last date for nomination of Directors the Director gives to the Company written notice that the Director is not available to be re-elected.

Appointment of Directors

- 12.8 At a meeting at which a Director retires, the Company may by resolution fill the vacated office by electing a person to that office.
- 12.9 A retiring Director who offers to be re-elected at a general meeting is re-appointed to the office of Director with effect from the end of that meeting if each of the following is satisfied:
- 12.9.1 The vacated office is not filled by the election of a Director at the meeting.
- 12.9.2 The Director is not disqualified under the Corporations Act 2001 from holding office as a Director,
- 12.10 This is the case unless at that general meeting either of the following occurs:

- 12.10.2 A resolution for the re-election of that Director is put and lost.

Retirement of Directors

- 12.11 At each annual general meeting of the Company the following Directors must retire from office:
- 12.11.1 One third of the Directors for the time being, or, if their number is not 3 or a multiple of 3, then the number nearest one third.
- 12.11.2 Any other Director, except a managing Director, who has been in office for 3 years or more since that Director's election or last re-election as a Director.
- 12.12 The Directors to retire at an annual general meeting are those who have been longest in office since their last election. If 2 or more persons became Directors on the same day, those to retire must be determined by lot unless they otherwise agree among themselves.
- 12.13 A Director retiring at an annual general meeting who is not disqualified by law from being reappointed is eligible for re-election and may act as a Director throughout the meeting at which that Director retires.
- 12.14 A Director may retire from office by giving notice in writing to the Company of that Director's intention to retire. A notice of resignation takes effect at the time which is the later of the following:
- 12.14.1 The time of giving the notice to the Company.
- 12.14.2 The expiration of the period, if any, specified in the notice.

Share qualification

- 12.15 A Director or alternate Director is not required to hold a share in order to hold office as a Director or alternate Director.

Casual vacancy Directors

- 12.16 The Board or the surviving Director may at any time appoint a person to be a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing number of Directors. The total number of Directors may not exceed the number fixed In accordance with this document.

Convening of Board meetings

- 13.2 A Director may at any time, and a Secretary must on the requisition of a Director, convene a meeting of the Board.

Notice of Board meetings

- 13.3 Notice of each meeting of the Board must be given to each Director at least 24 hours before the meeting or at another time determined by resolution of the Board.

- 13.7 At a meeting of Board, the number of Directors whose presence is necessary to constitute a quorum is 2 or another number determined by the Board.

Voting at Board meetings

- 13.9 Questions arising at a meeting of the Board must be decided by a majority of votes of the Directors present and voting. A decision of the majority is for all purposes a decision of the Board.

Appointment of chairperson of the Board

- 13.10 The Board may elect a Director to chair their meetings and determine the period for which the person elected is to hold office.
- 13.11 If a chairperson has not been elected, or if at any meeting the chairperson is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Directors present may choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

Chairperson's vote at Board meetings

- 13.12 The chairperson does not have a casting vote in either of the following circumstances:
- 13.12.1 At a meeting of Board at which only 2 Directors are present.
- 13.12.2 On the vote on a question to be decided on which only 2 Directors are competent to vote.
- 13.13 In all other cases of an equality of votes, the chairperson of the meeting has a casting vote in addition to the chairperson's deliberative vote as a Director.

Participation where Directors interested

- 13.14 A Director may be present and may vote on a matter before the Board if and to the extent that they are permitted to do so under the Corporations Act 2001.
- 13.15 If there are not enough Directors to form a quorum as a result of a Director having an interest which disqualifies them from voting then 1 or more of the Directors (including those who have the disqualifying interest in the matter) may call a general meeting of the Company and the general meeting may pass a resolution to deal with the matter.

Delegation of powers to committee

- 13.16 The Board may delegate any of its powers to committees consisting of Directors or other persons as they think fit to act in Australia or elsewhere. The exercise of a power by a committee in accordance with this document is to be treated as the exercise of that power by the Board. In the exercise of any powers delegated to it, a committee formed by the Board must conform to the directions of the Board.

Proceedings of committees

- 13.17 Except as provided in a direction of the Board, the meetings and proceedings of a committee formed by the Board must be governed by the provisions of this document, in so far as they are applicable, as if meetings and proceedings of the committee are meetings and proceedings of the Board.

Validity of acts of Board

- 13.18 All acts done by a meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board or by a person acting as a Director are valid even if it is later discovered that there is a defect in the appointment of a person to be a Director or a member of the committee or that they or any of them were disqualified or were not entitled to vote.

Minutes

- 13.19 The Board must cause minutes of all proceedings of general meetings, of meetings of the Board and of committees formed by the Board to be entered, within one month after the relevant meeting is held, in books kept for the purpose. - 13.21 A resolution in writing may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more Directors and if so signed it takes effect on the latest date on which a Director signs one of the documents.
- 13.22 If a resolution in writing is signed by an alternate Director, it must not also be signed by the appointor of the alternate Director and vice versa.
- 13.23 In relation to a resolution in writing:
- 13.23.1 A document generated by electronic means which purports to be a facsimile of a resolution of the Board is to be treated as a resolution in writing.
- 13.23.2 A document bearing a facsimile of a signature is to be treated as assigned.

14. Directors' remuneration

Director's fees

- 14.1 The Directors must be paid by way of fees for their services the aggregate sum determined from time to time by the Company in general meeting. Before a determination is made by the Company in general meeting, the aggregate sum of the fees payable by the Company to the non executive Directors is a maximum of $500,000 per annum.
- 14.2 The aggregate sum must be divided among the Directors in the proportions and in the manner from time to time agreed by the Board. If they do not agree it must be divided equally.
- 14.3 The fees payable by the Company to Directors other than executive Directors must be by a fixed sum and must not be paid by way of commission on or a percentage of profits or operating revenue.
- 14.4 The aggregate sum of the Directors fees must not be increased except with the prior approval of the Company in general meeting. The notice convening the meeting must state the amount of the increase in the aggregate sum and the maximum sum that may be paid following the increase.

14.5 Directors' fees accrue from day to day.

Payment for expenses

14.6 In addition to their fees, the Directors must be paid all travelling, accommodation, and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from meetings of the Board or any committee of the Board or general meetings or otherwise in the execution of their duties as Directors

Payment for extra services

14.7 A Director who is called upon to perform extra services or to make a special exertion or to undertake executive or other work for the Company beyond the Director's ordinary duties may be paid additional fees for those services, exertions or work.

14.8 The additional amount may be paid in accordance with both of the following:

14.8.1 Either by fixed sum or salary determined by the Board.

14.8.2 Either in addition to or in substitution for the fees otherwise payable to the Director.

Payments to former Directors

14.9 Subject to the Corporations Act 2001, the Board may determine that the Company pay a gratuity, pension or allowance, at the time of or following retirement or other vacation of office to a Director or to a relative of a Director and make contributions to any fund and pay any premiums for the purchase or provision of that gratuity, pension or allowance.

15. Managing and executive Directors

Appointment

15.1 The Board may appoint one or more of their number to hold any executive office of the Company, including that of executive chairperson or managing Director. A Director appointed to an executive office of the Company is referred to in this document as an executive Director. The appointment of a Director to an executive office may be for the period and on the terms determined by the Board, subject to the provisions of the Corporations Act 2001.

Termination of appointment of executive Director

15.2 The Board may revoke or terminate any appointment of a Director to an executive office, but without affecting any claim for damages for breach of any employment contract between the Director and the Company.

15.3 A Director appointed as executive chairperson or managing Director (or some equivalent title) will automatically cease to hold that office if they cease to be a Director, but without affecting any claim for damages for breach of any employment contract between the Director and the Company. Any other executive Director will not automatically cease to hold their executive office if they cease to be a Director unless the contract or any resolution under which the Director holds office expressly states that they will, in which case that cessation does not affect any claim for damages for breach of any employment contract between the Director and the Company.

Retirement by rotation

15.4 An executive Director who is appointed as a managing Director is not subject to retirement by rotation and is not to be counted in determining the rotation or retirement of the other Directors. Any other executive Director is subject to retirement by rotation.

Remuneration of executive Directors

- 15.5 Subject to the terms of any agreement entered into between the Company and an executive Director, that executive Director is entitled to receive the remuneration determined by the Board. The remuneration of an executive Director may be paid by way of salary, commission, or participation in profits, or partly in one way and partly in another as determined by the Board. The remuneration of an executive Director must not include a commission on or percentage of operating revenue.
