Commenting on the acquisition of Wudinna, Barton Managing Director Alexander Scanlon said:

"We are pleased to announce binding terms to acquire the Wudinna Gold Project, which upon Completion of the transaction will add a further 279,000oz gold to our South Australian development portfolio. The assets offer significant low-cost optionality to Barton's long-term regional development objectives, and we will be pleased to welcome Cobra and its shareholders to Barton's register as we steadily unlock value across our entire platform."

"We applaud South Australia for a new regulatory framework permitting the sub-division of mineral tenements. This enabled both a transaction which otherwise would not have materialised, and Wudinna's advancement."

Wudinna Gold Project

Barton and Cobra have entered into binding terms (Agreement) for the sale and purchase of Wudinna (Transaction), located on South Australia's Eyre Peninsula approximately 200km southeast of Tunkillia.

The Exploration Licenses (ELs) hosting Wudinna (Wudinna ELs) are presently held by Peninsula Resources Pty Ltd, a subsidiary of ASX-listed Andromeda Metals Ltd (Andromeda). In September 2023 Cobra acquired from Andromeda a 100% beneficial interest in Wudinna, on terms including the agreement to apply for the subdivision of the Wudinna ELs to divide Cobra's and Andromeda's respective areas and minerals of commercial interest or, failing that, for Cobra to become the legal owner of the Wudinna ELs.

Exploration License Applications (ELAs) have now been lodged by LAM Wudinna Pty Ltd, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cobra, for the areas of the ELs covering its areas and minerals of commercial interest, being the Wudinna Gold Project (across five ELs) and the Boland Rare Earths Project (on EL 5953) (Boland). If the new ELs are granted pursuant to the ELAs, Cobra will be the sole legal and beneficial owner.

- Other standard terms including 'no shop, no talk' exclusivity terms pending Completion.

² All Barton Shares issues pursuant to the Agreement will be issued pursuant to Barton's ASX Listing Rule 7.1 capacity.

³ Cobra has the right to acquire the Exploration Licenses over which the ELAs have been issued pursuant to Section 30AA of the South Australian Mining Act (Original Tenements). If the New Tenements are not granted, the Parties may pursue the issue of new Exploration Licenses (and Final Settlement) through an application for subdivision of the Original Tenements in favour of Barton for those areas representing the Sale Assets or, if this is unsuccessful, Barton shall have the right to elect to either (a) take the Original Tenements in lieu, or (b) terminate the Transaction.

⁷ At Final Settlement NewCo will also assume a 1.5% net smelter return (NSR) royalty obligation for the area of the New Tenements.

Barton JORC (2012) Mineral Resources

Subject to Completion of the Transaction, and further to Barton's other announcement of today's date updating the Challenger JORC (2012) MRE, Barton's total South Australian JORC Gold Mineral Resources endowment would then be 2.14Moz (78.9Mt @ 0.85 g/t Au), which is anticipated to grow further with the replacement of the estimate for Mineral Resources in the Challenger underground below the 900mRL level, which is currently underway.⁸

Other details

Barton has completed confirmatory due diligence on the Sale Assets, with all key considerations factored into the Transaction structure. Completion of the Transaction is therefore subject only to the approval of Cobra shareholders at an extraordinary general meeting anticipated to be held during July 2025 (EGM).

Barton will provide further updates in due course, including in relation to the calling of an EGM by Cobra and the results of shareholder voting in relation to the Transaction at the EGM.
