Templeton Global Growth Fund Limited Appoints New Director

Mr David Walsh, Chairman of Templeton Global Growth Fund Limited, today announced the appointment of Mr Michael E Bartlett as an Independent Non-executive Director of the Company.

Mr Bartlett is currently Head of Sales at S G Hiscock & Co ("SGH"), with responsibility for the marketing of SGH's Australian Equity Funds.

From 2000 to 2006 Mr Bartlett was an Executive Director at K2 Asset Management with responsibility for the marketing of K2's suite of Managed Investment Funds.

Between 1990 and 2000 Mr Bartlett was based and worked in Asia, first in Hong Kong and later in Singapore, in various capacities in relation to the management and marketing of equity related products. From 1992 to 1994 he was a Vice President, Institutional Equity Sales, at Morgan Stanley Asia Limited, Hong Kong, before being appointed Head of Asian Institutional Equity Sales. In 1995 he was appointed an Executive Director. On moving to Singapore in 1996 he became Executive Director, Head of Institutional Equity Sales, Morgan Stanley Asia (Singapore).

Mr Bartlett is a Director of Opera Australia Capital Fund Limited and a Director and Member of the Council of Melbourne Grammar School.

Mr Walsh said: "The Directors of Templeton Global Growth Fund Limited are delighted that Michael Bartlett has accepted our invitation to join our Board as a Non-executive Director. His extensive knowledge and experience in relation to the management and marketing of global and domestic equity funds and products will provide expertise that pertinently complements the existing mix of skills and backgrounds on the Board. I greatly look forward to working with Michael."
