ASX Release: 17th May, 2011

Appointment of Guy Day to Board

Ambition Group Limited announced at its Annual General Meeting that it had appointed Guy Day to its Board, effective 16th May 2011.

This decision follows Day's appointment as Chief Executive for the Ambition brand globally in January this year.

Day is based in Singapore and has lived and worked in Asia for over 14 years. He started his recruitment career in 1995 with Michael Page in the UK before being transferred to Hong Kong in January 1997. He joined Ambition in January 2001 to launch the company's Hong Kong business and subsequently its Singapore office. Day added the UK business to his remit in June 2009 and extended his responsibilities further to include Australia earlier this year.

Ambition's Group Chairman Nick Waterworth commented that "Guy's appointment will enable us to harness his skills and experience at board level and his intimate knowledge of recruitment in Asia will be of benefit to the group moving forward as Asia becomes an increasingly important part of the group's operations".
