ASX Release

5 July 2011

IOH's position regarding Anketell Port

Iron Ore Holdings Ltd (ASX Code: "IOH") wishes to clarify inaccurate media reporting in respect of its position to the proposed Anketell Port. IOH remains independent of all parties in relation to the Anketell Port project, but is having productive discussions with the State Government, several development proponents and other potential future users of the Port.

With regards the media reporting on the current IOH Central Pilbara Satellite review process, IOH confirms it is in confidential discussions with a number of selected parties, whose identities are also confidential. The target timeline for an IOH decision whether to divest the Satellite deposits, or to continue with self-development, is towards the end of Quarter 3 CY11.
