

MEDIA RELEASE 24th NOVEMBER 2011

RESIGNATION OF NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Perth-based coal exploration company East Energy Resources (East Energy) has today advised of the resignation of one of its foundation Non-Executive Directors, Malcolm Castle, effective immediately.

Mr Castle was a foundation member of the East Energy Board when it listed in December 2007 and has contributed to the direction and success achieved by East Energy to date.

Mr Castle has decided to focus his time and energy on his consulting business, specialising in exploration management, technical audit and due diligence and on his executive role as Technical Director of Brazilian Metals Group.

The Board would like to extend its thanks and appreciation to Malcolm for his significant contributions to the Company since its inception and wishes him all the best in his future endeavours.
