Sydney Kingsford Smith Airport Interest Earning Securities ("SKIES")

Sydney Airport Bank Debt Commitments

In line with the phased approach being taken to debt maturities in 2011 and 2012, Sydney Airport has received a number of bank debt commitments which, when taken together with other initiatives, address those maturities.

Sydney Airport has received over A$1bn in bank debt commitments from several banks with terms ranging from three to seven years and margins of 200-250 basis points. The commitments have been provided by a combination of new and existing lenders.

Sydney Airport has now received financing commitments which exceed the term debt facilities maturing across 2011 and 2012.

It is anticipated that financial close will occur by end October 2010.
