Strategic Review and Market Update

Tawana Resources NL (ASX: TAW) is pleased to announce that it is undertaking a strategic review of potential financing and strategic partnership options to advance the development of the Mofe Creek Iron Ore Project, Liberia (Mofe Creek).

The Company is undertaking this review as a result of approaches to the Company regarding its intentions for the funding and development of its Mofe Creek Project. The Board feels it is important to explore all potential funding and development scenarios with the aim of maximising shareholder returns.

The Company also wishes to announce the resignation of its Chairman, David Frances. Mr Frances commented "I look forward to seeing the development of the exciting Mofe Creek iron ore project in the future, and wish the Company and management every success".

The Company believes the current structure of the Board is suitable for the current situation and does not propose to immediately appoint a replacement to the Board.

The Company shall continue to keep the market updated in relation to any material developments.
