Board Changes

Lemur Resources Limited (ASX: LMR) wishes to advise that Mr Blair Sergeant has resigned as the Company's Managing Director, effective immediately. To ensure the smooth transition in management of Lemur, Mr Sergeant will continue to be available to the Company in a consulting capacity for a period of 3 months. The Board expresses its appreciation for Mr Sergeant's contribution in advancing the Company's Imaloto coal project in Madagascar.

Mr Marcello Cardaci, a current non-executive director, will act as the interim non-executive Chairman of the Company effective immediately. In addition, Mr Ryan Rockwood and Mr Anthony Viljoen, both currently non-executive directors, will act as part-time, interim executive directors of the Company to drive the Board's strategy forward, effective immediately, but with no additional executive remuneration to be paid until conclusion of Mr Sergeant's consulting role.

The Board of Directors of Lemur remain committed to the progress of the Imaloto coal project in Madagascar through completing the project scoping studies and the signing of a Heads of Agreement with Jirama, the Madagascan power utility. In addition, the Company will also actively pursue its strategy of diversifying its asset portfolio through the identification and acquisition of a second asset for development.

An Appendix 3Z "Director's Final Interest Notice" follows.
