About Forge Resources:

The Company's primary project is its 75% interest in the advanced Balla Balla Vanadium – Titanium – Magnetite (VTi Magnetite) project that was acquired by Forge from Atlas Iron Ltd in May 2012. Balla Balla is located on granted mining tenements near the Pilbara coastline where Forge now has approval from the Minister of the Environment for an export facility. In addition Forge is currently farming-in to an exploration project within the Fraser Range region. Forge in conjunction with its Joint Venture partners are also advancing the exploration of prospective tungsten, molybdenum, gold and base metal projects located in New South Wales, Australia and in accordance with its charter will also seek to acquire or participate in additional resource and energy projects in Australia and overseas.
