Background on West Klondike Prospect

The West Klondike Prospect is a fault block closure which has been identified on 3D seismic data and is in close proximity to analogous offset production. The targeted sand sections are the Marg Tex, Lario and Upper and Lower Nod Blan, all of which produce in the fields highlighted on the sub regional map. The resource potential is 4.8 MMBL oil and 17 BCF gas. There is also a larger, separate, high pressure, deeper prospect in the leased area that will require a separate well. The target sands of this deeper feature (Bridas) have recently yielded a significant discovery approximately 2.5km to the NE.

The Companies' share of the initial well costs is ~14% (~US$460,000 each) to TD. In a success case the Companies' share of completion costs is estimated to be a further US$65,000 each.
