PROXIES

In accordance with section 249L of the Corporations Act and the Company's constitution,

Shareholders are advised that:

- each Shareholder has a right to appoint one proxy, and if the Shareholder may cast two or more votes, the Shareholder may appoint two proxies;
- a proxy need not be a Shareholder of the Company; and
- if a Shareholder appoints two proxies, the Shareholder may specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise; and
- if the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the Shareholder's votes to be voted by each proxy, each proxy may exercise half of the Shareholder's votes.

In accordance with section 250BA of the Corporations Act, the Company specifies the following information for the purposes of receipt of proxy appointments:

Online*	www.advancedshare.com.au
By Mail	Advanced Share Registry Ltd PO Box 1156 Nedlands WA 6909
By Facsimile	(618) 9389 7871

*Refer to the Online Proxy Voting section, under "Investors" on the website.

The instrument appointing the proxy must be signed by the Shareholder, or by the Shareholder's attorney who is authorised to sign the instrument under a power of attorney. If a Shareholder is a company it must sign the instrument in accordance with section 127 of the Corporations Act.

A proxy is not entitled to vote unless the instrument appointing the proxy, and the authority under which the instrument is signed or a certified copy of the authority, is either deposited at the registered office of the Company or sent by facsimile to that office, and in each case to be received not less than 48 hours prior to the time of the Annual General Meeting.

If the Proxy Form specifies a way in which the proxy is to vote on any of the Resolutions stated above, then the following applies:

- a) the proxy need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way;
- b) if the proxy has 2 or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the

Resolution, the proxy must not vote on a show of hands;

- c) if the proxy is the Chairman, the proxy must vote on a poll and must vote that way; and
- d) if the proxy is not the Chairman, the proxy need not vote on a poll, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way.

If a proxy is also a Shareholder, the proxy can cast any votes the proxy holds as a Shareholder in any way that the proxy sees fit.

If a proxy is not directed how to vote on an item of business, the proxy may generally vote, or abstain from voting, as they see fit.

Should any Resolution, other than those specified in this Notice of Annual General, be proposed at the meeting, a proxy may vote on that Resolution as they see fit.

If a proxy is instructed to abstain from voting on an item of business, they are directed not to vote on the Shareholder's behalf on the poll and the shares that are the subject of the proxy appointment will not be counted in calculating the required majority.

Shareholders who return their Proxy Forms with a direction how to vote but do not nominate the identity of their proxy will be taken to have appointed the Chairman of the meeting as their proxy to vote on their behalf. If a Proxy Form is returned but the nominated proxy does not attend the meeting, the Chairman of the meeting will act in place of the nominated proxy and vote in accordance with any instructions. Proxy appointments in favour of the Chairman of the meeting, the secretary or any Director that do not contain a direction how to vote will be used where possible to support each of the Resolutions proposed in this Notice of Annual General Meeting, provided they are entitled to cast votes as a proxy under the voting exclusion rules which apply to some of the proposed Resolutions. These rules are explained in this Notice of Annual General Meeting.

The Chairman intends to vote any undirected proxies in favour of the Resolutions.

However, in the case of Resolution 3 (Remuneration Report), if a Shareholder that is a Prohibited Voter appoints the Chairman of the meeting as the Shareholder's proxy and does not specify how the Chairman is to vote on Resolution 3, the Chairman will vote on the Resolution only if the appointment expressly authorises the Chairman to exercise the proxy even if the Resolution is connected directly or indirectly with the remuneration of the Key Management Personnel.

VOTING BY CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVE

A corporation may elect to appoint a representative in accordance with section 250D of the Corporations Act in which case the Company will require written proof of the representative's appointment which must be lodged with, or presented to the Company before the Annual General Meeting.
