Announcement to the Australian Securities Exchange

World Wide Entertainment Group Limited update to the market

In August 2008, the company signed a fixed price distribution contract to allow sub-licensing of World Wide's library in Africa. The contract began on 1 January 2009 and was worth $2 million over 2 years. Due to lack of sales in the 6 months ending 30 June 2009, the client requested a release from the distribution contract. The company agreed to the client's request.

The company is still negotiating final payment of $250,000. This payment is overdue.

For the financial year ending 30 June 2009, World Wide Entertainment Group Limited is expecting to deliver a net profit after tax result of approximately $400,000. This result is at the lower end of the range given in the trading update in April and is yet to be audited.
