ASX Release

Last Trading Day

As already announced, the securities of Gippsland Offshore Petroleum Limited ("GOP") will be suspended from trading on the ASX at the close of business today. The suspension will be in place for one week after which the Company will be removed from the official list of ASX Limited.

For clarity, today will be the last day GOP securities will trade on the ASX.

Shareholders who remain on the Company's CHESS sub-register on the removal date will be moved to issuer sponsored and will be issued with share certificates/statements reflecting their shareholding.

Following removal, Company updates and announcements will be posted on the Company's website. Shareholders wishing to receive this information by email are encouraged to register via the website www.gop.com.au.
