Principle No.	Recommendation	Compliance or Reason for Non-compliance
1.1	A listed entity should disclose: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management. 	The Company does not comply in full with this Recommendation. The Company recognises that the overall responsibility of the board is to represent and advance shareholders' interests and to protect the interests of all stakeholders. Given the current size of the Company and of the board, and of the scale of the Group's operations, the board is yet to formally adopt a formal board charter. The Board will continually review the need for a board charter, and adopt it as and when the need arises in the future.
1.2	A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director. 	The Company complies in full with this Recommendation The entire board will carry out appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director. All material information in the board's possession will be set out in explanatory notes accompanying notices of general meetings where appointments of directors will be voted on by security holders.
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	The Company complies in full with this Recommendation Each director is required to sign a letter of appointment setting out the terms of his or her appointment. Senior executives have signed employment contracts under relevant labour laws of China.
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	The Company complies in full with this Recommendation. The chair and each member of the board has free and unfettered access to the company secretary. The company secretary is also authorized to communicate any issue or raise any concern directly with the chair

1.5	A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy, and its progress towards achieving them and either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (1) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (2) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act. 	and/or any member of the board as he consider necessary. The Company does not comply in full with this Recommendation. The board supports workplace diversity, including gender diversity but considers that the Company is not of a size or maturity to justify a formal diversity policy. The board's priority has been to ensure that its members have the appropriate level of experience and skills to manage the Company at its early stages of operations rather than focusing on gender and other diversity factors.
1.6	A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process. 	The Company complies in full with this Recommendation. The Company has a practice and a process of periodically evaluating the performance of the board (collective self appraisal) and individual directors (peer review by other members of the board). This review will be done at the end of each financial year at the same time the board meets to approve its financial statements for that financial year.

- 1.7 A listed entity should:
- (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and
 - (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.
- 2.1 The board of a listed entity should:
- (a) have a nomination committee which:
 - (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and
 - (2) is chaired by an independent director,
 and disclose:
 - (3) the charter of the committee;
 - (4) the members of the committee; and
 - (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or
 - (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.
- 2.2 A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills

In relation to the Reporting Period, the Company had carried out a performance evaluation in accordance with this process.

The Company complies in full with this Recommendation.

The board will meet at least annually to review the performance of executives. The senior executives' performance is assessed against the performance of the Group as a whole.

In relation to the Reporting Period, the Company had carried out a performance evaluation in accordance with this process.

The Company does not comply in full with this Recommendation.

The board considers that the Company is not currently of a size to justify the formation of a nomination committee. The board as a whole undertakes the process of reviewing the skill base and experience of existing directors to enable identification or attributes required in new directors. Where appropriate, independent consultants will be engaged to identify possible new candidates for the board either as addition to the board to supplement its current skills and experience or as part of succession planning for the board.

The Company does not comply in full with this Recommendation.

and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership

The board considers that the Company is currently at early stages of operations, and that its current composition has the appropriate level of experience and skills to manage the Company. As the Company grows its scope and scale of operations, the board will assess the skills matrix it currently has, the skills matrix it seeks to achieve and what actions it needs to take to achieve that target. The board will continuously assess whether 2.4 A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.

The Company does not comply in full with this Recommendation.

The board currently comprise of one executive director, two non-independent non-executive director and two independent directors. To comply with this Recommendation will require the Company to appoint two additional independent directors which will increase the size of the board to seven members. The board consider that the current size of the Company and the scale of the Group's operations do not justify having such a large board when the functions of the board can be performed adequately by the current board.

As the Company grows in scope and scale of operations, the board will assess whether there is a need to expand the board by inviting persons with the right skills sets to join the board as independent directors.

2.5 The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.

The Company does not comply in full with this Recommendation.

Currently, the chairman of the board is CHUA Soon Beng Ellen, a non-executive director, and the CEO of the Company is CHONG Hock Tat, Robin.

2.6 A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.

The Company complies in full with this Recommendation.

The board has put in place a program where all new directors will be assessed by the Company's nominated adviser as to the extent of his or her awareness of his or her responsibilities as a director of a company which is listed on NSX, and where such awareness is insufficient, to undergo such training or induction as may be recommended by the nominated adviser.

The present members of the board are aware of their personal responsibilities to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively and, if so requested by a director, the Company will bear reasonable costs and expenses of any continuing education program or course which a director may request to attend.

Finally, the board intends to appoint only as director a person who has the necessary skills and knowledge to perform his or her intended role and who is aware of his or her personal responsibility for his or her own continuous education.

3.1 A listed entity should:

- (a) have a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and
- (b) disclose that code or a summary of it.

The Company does not comply in full with this Recommendation.

The Company has not formally adopted a Code of Conduct. However, every director, senior executive and employees is aware of his or her responsibility to at all times act ethically and strictly comply with the spirit and letter of all laws and regulations of countries in which the Group carry on business

4.1 The board of a listed entity should:

- (a) have an audit committee which:
 - (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non- executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and
 - (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board,and disclose:
 - (3) the charter of the committee;
 - (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and
 - (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or
- (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for

The Company does not comply in full with this Recommendation.

The board considers that the Company is not of a size, nor is its financial affairs of such complexity, to justify the formation of an audit committee. The board as a whole, in consultation with the incumbent external auditor, undertakes the selection and proper application of accounting policies, the integrity of financial reporting, the identification and management of risk and review of the operation of the internal control systems. When performing the role of an audit committee or when the board meets as the audit committee it will be chaired by MAH Seong Kung who has an accountancy degree from the National University of Singapore and a Chartered Accountant (Singapore).

The board maintains regular communication with the external auditor and monitors their performance on a yearly basis. Currently, the board considers the Company's financial affairs not to be of such complexity as to justify the rotation of the audit partner.

the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.
