The Directors recommend Shareholders read this Explanatory Statement in full before making any decision in relation to the resolutions.

The following information should be noted in respect of the various matters contained in the accompanying Notice and should be read in conjunction with the Notice of Meeting.

1. Financial Statements and Reports

The Corporations Act requires the Company's Annual Financial Report, the Directors' Report and the Auditor's Report for the year ended 31 December 2023 to be laid before the AGM. Shareholders will be provided with a reasonable opportunity to ask questions about the reports. There is no requirement either in the Corporations Act or the Company's Constitution that the Shareholders vote on or approve the reports.

Shareholders can access a copy of the Company's Annual Financial Report, the Directors' Report and the Independent Auditor's Report for the year ended 31 December 2023 on the National Stock Exchange of Australia's (NSX) website: www.nsx.com.au

2. Resolution 1 – Remuneration Report

The Corporations Act requires that at a listed company's annual general meeting, a resolution that the remuneration report be adopted must be put to the shareholders. However, such a resolution is advisory only and does not bind the directors of the company.

The Remuneration Report sets out the Company's remuneration arrangements for Key Management Personnel of the Company. The Remuneration Report is part of the Directors' Report contained in the annual financial report of the Company for the financial year ending 31 December 2023. A reasonable opportunity will be provided for discussion of the Remuneration Report at the Annual General Meeting.

Voting consequences

Under the Corporations Act, if at least 25% of the votes cast on a remuneration report resolution are voted against the adoption of the remuneration report in two consecutive annual general meetings, the company will be required to put to shareholders a resolution

All of the directors of the company who were in office when the Directors' Report (as included in the Company's annual financial report for the financial year ended immediately before the second annual general meeting) was approved, other than the executive directors of the company, will cease to hold office immediately before the end of the Spill Meeting but may stand for re-election at the Spill Meeting.

Following the Spill Meeting those persons whose election or re-election as directors of the company is approved by the shareholders will be the directors of the company.
