Seeka announces CFO retirement and CFO designate

Seeka Limited [NZX:SEK] announces the retirement of its Chief Financial Officer, Mr Stuart McKinstry.

Stuart, who has held the role since December 2006, will leave the Company on or around 29 April 2022. The company has undergone significant transformation and growth throughout Stuart's tenure with numerous acquisitions and corporate transactions. Stuart also served on the Claims Committee of the Kiwifruit Claim successfully settling with the Crown in 2021 on behalf of claimants.

Stuart is a highly respected and regarded executive at Seeka. He has diligently and loyally served the company and its growers with distinction. He leaves to retire, and to pursue his own business interest and governance opportunities.

Stuart will be replaced by Mrs Nicola Neilson. Nicola is the current Seeka Group Financial Controller, has been at Seeka since 2017 and is currently on maternity leave. It is intended that Nicola will take the role on Stuart's retirement.

Release ends.
