Skellerup appoints Rachel Farrant to the Board

Skellerup today announced the appointment of Rachel Farrant to its Board as an independent director.

Farrant is a Business Advisory Services Partner at BDO in Wellington. She is also an experienced director having recently stepped down from Fulton Hogan after a 10-year tenure. Farrant is currently a director of New Plymouth Airport, The Property Group and Fair Way Resolution.

Chair Liz Coutts said, “Rachel has a track record of success as a director on a number of boards over the last 10 years as well as her role as a Partner at BDO for over 20 years. Her diverse experience across a range of sectors including construction, technology, financial and property mean she is well placed to make a valuable contribution to Skellerup’s future.”
